A SECRET AMBITION FULFILLED AT LONG LAST!

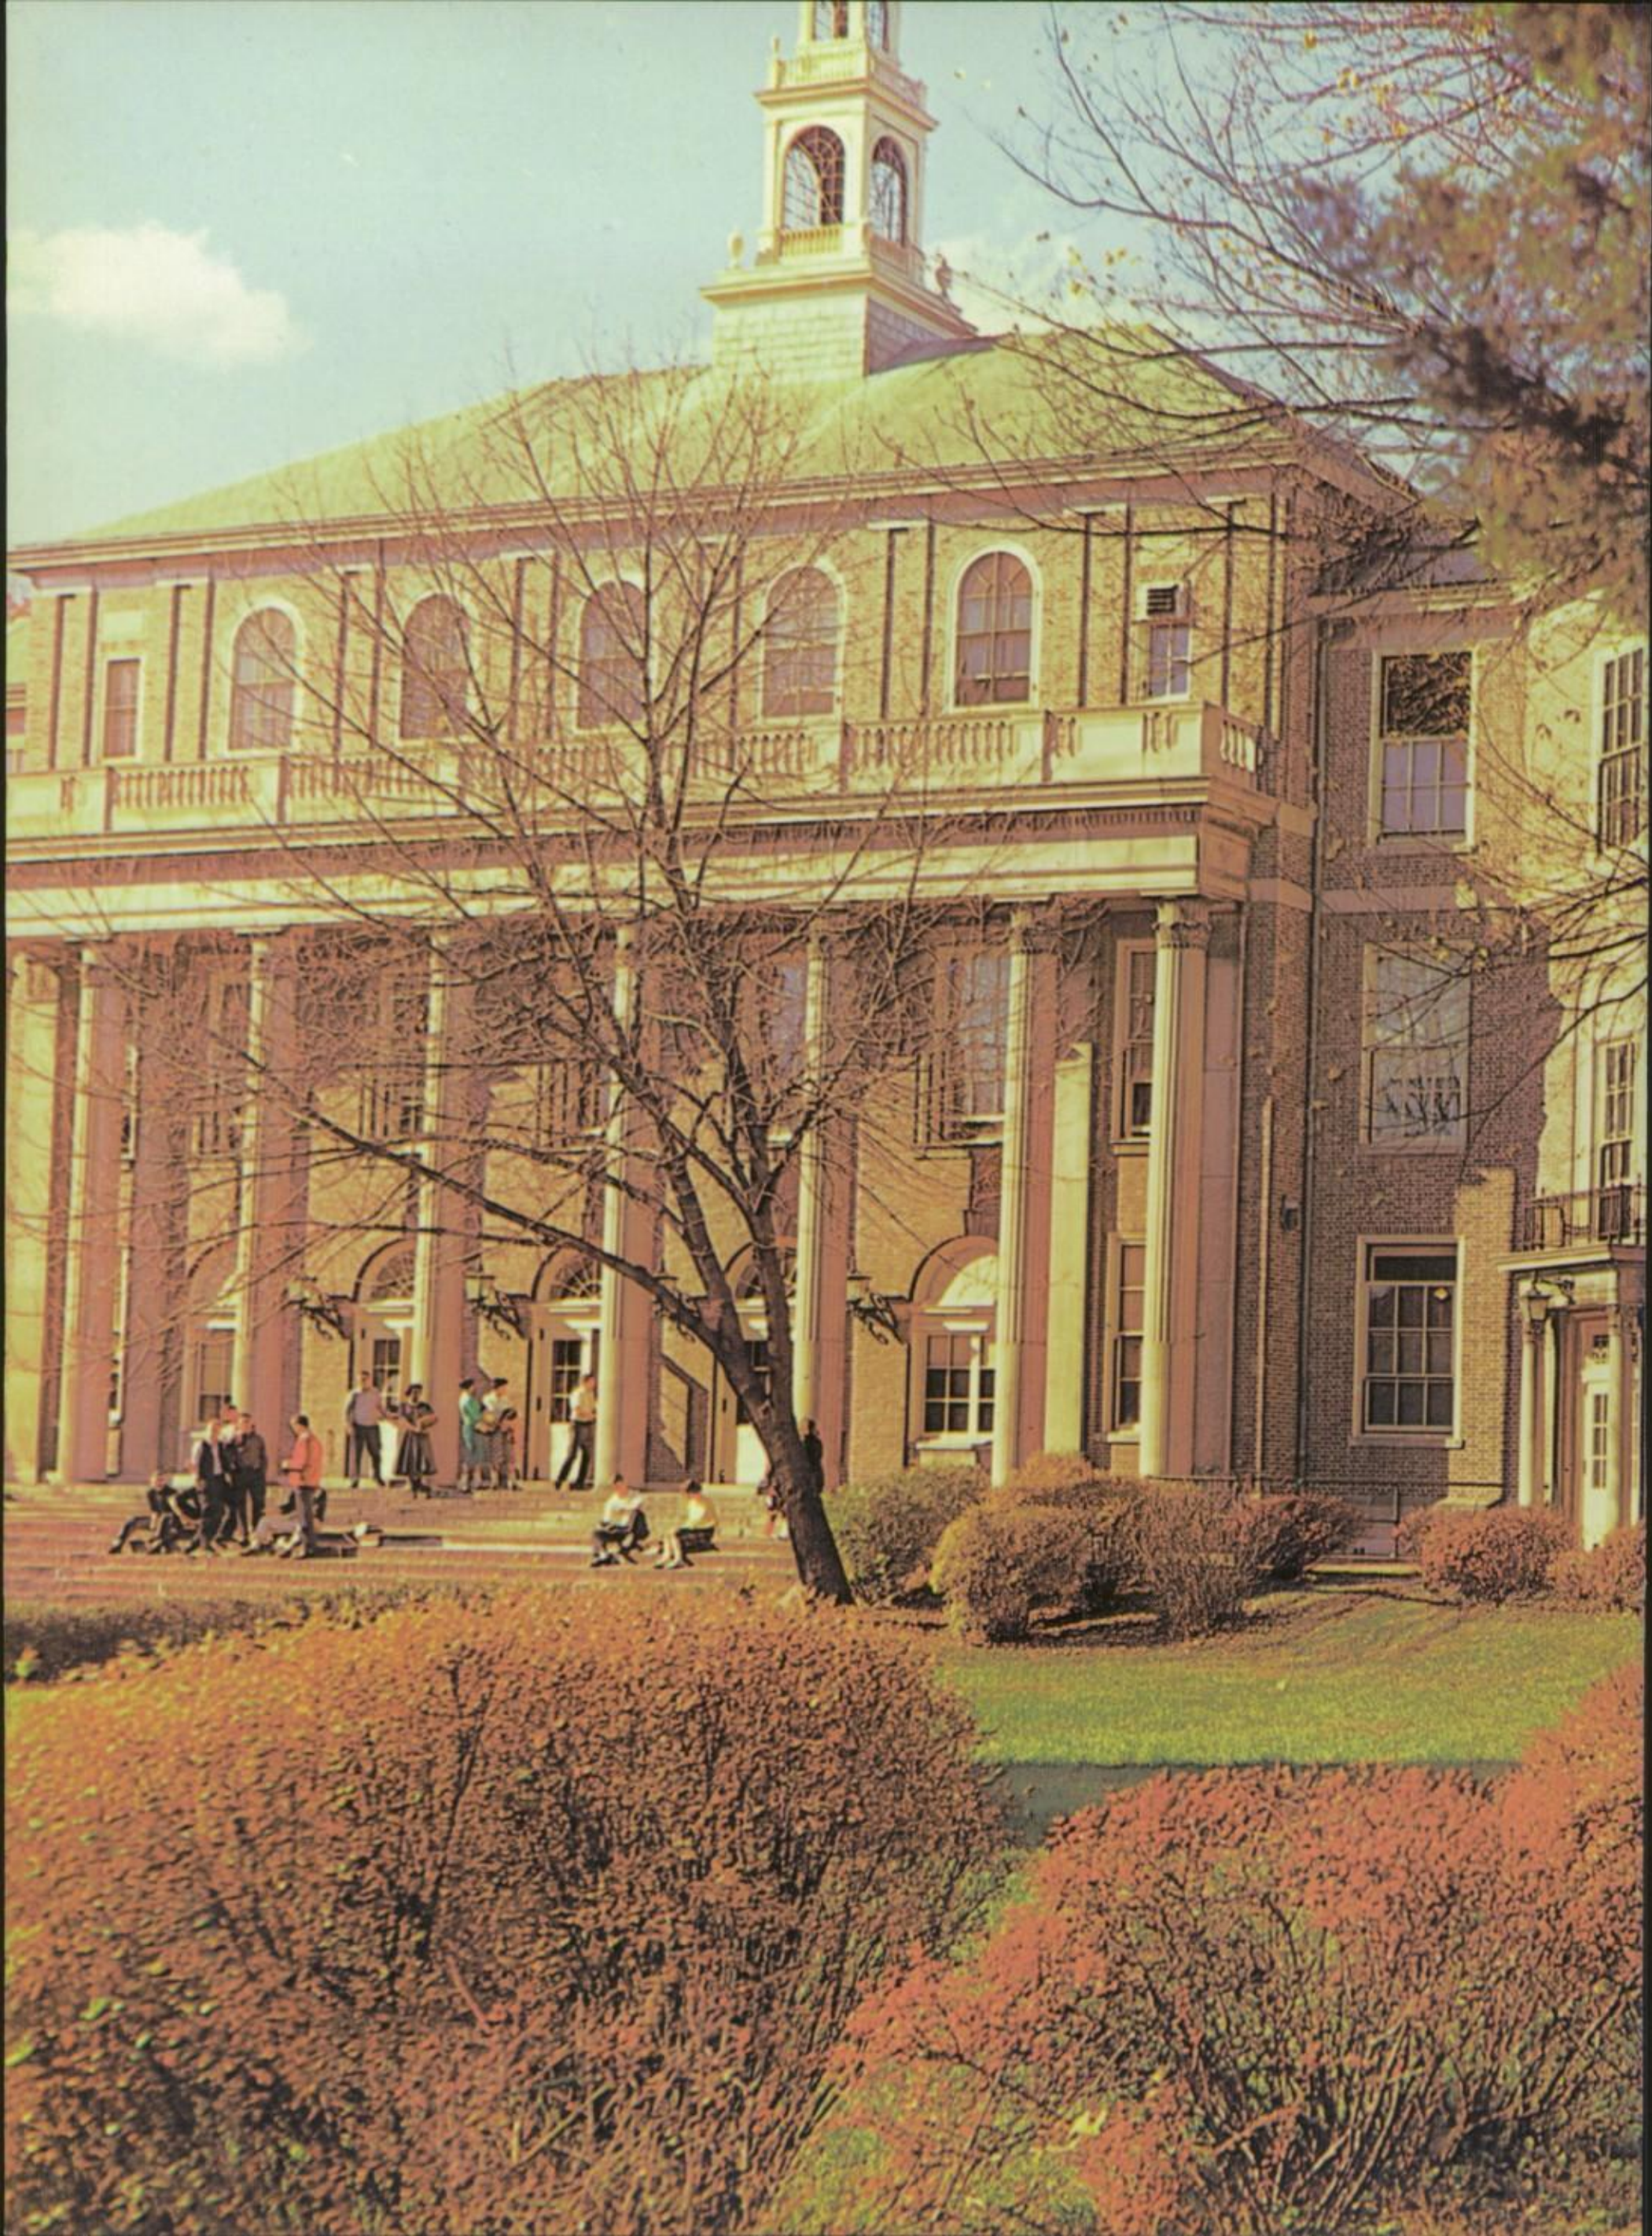

Seldom at Withrow has any one person made such an impression on her associates as Miss Ruth Grove, the head of our Latin Department. This year, after over forty years of devotion to her field, Miss Grove decided to retire. She will not leave, however, without numerous laurels on her behalf. Through her wonderful wit and contagious enthusiasm, the inanimate pages of Latin sprang to life for her students. Her activities at school, abroad, and at home have truly earned for her the titles scholar, traveler, and beloved teacher. It is with deepest gratitude and sincere admiration that the 1960 Annual is dedicated to her. "Forsan et olim haec meminisse iuvabit"—And perhaps hereafter it will be pleasurable to recall these things.

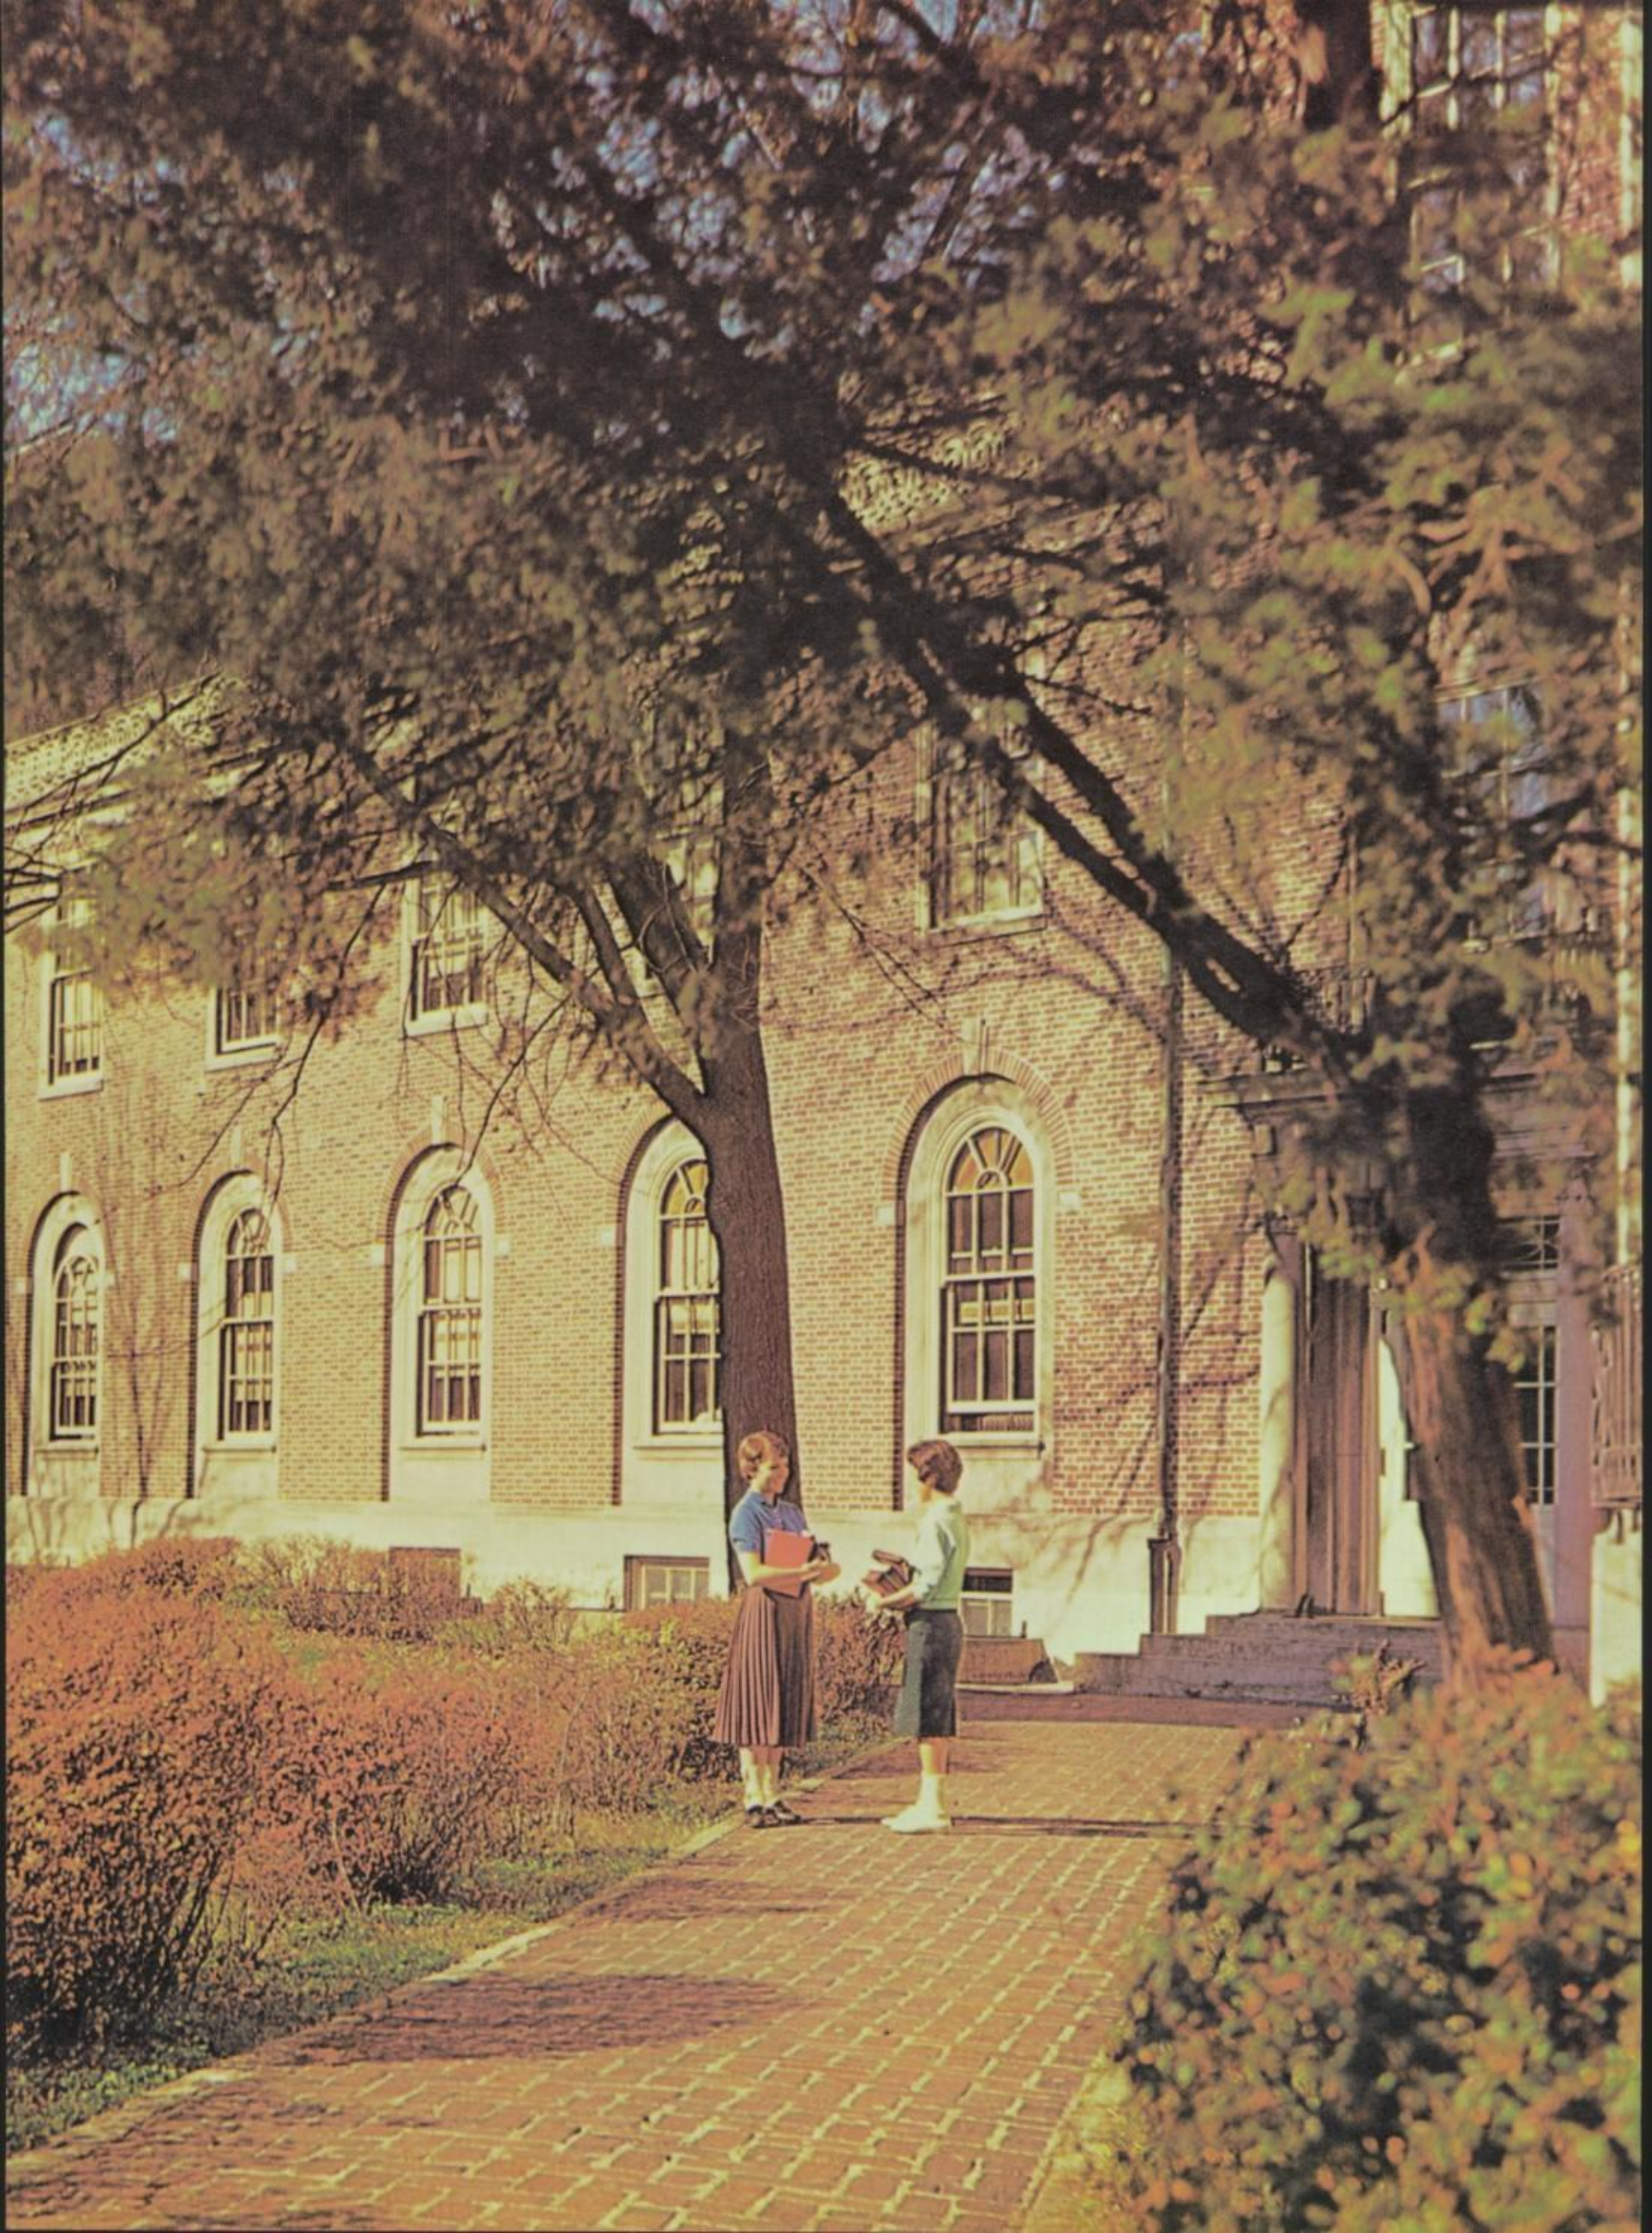

IS THERE ANYTHING THAT SHE CANNOT DO?

MISS GROVES' AMIABILITY COMES TO THE FORE.

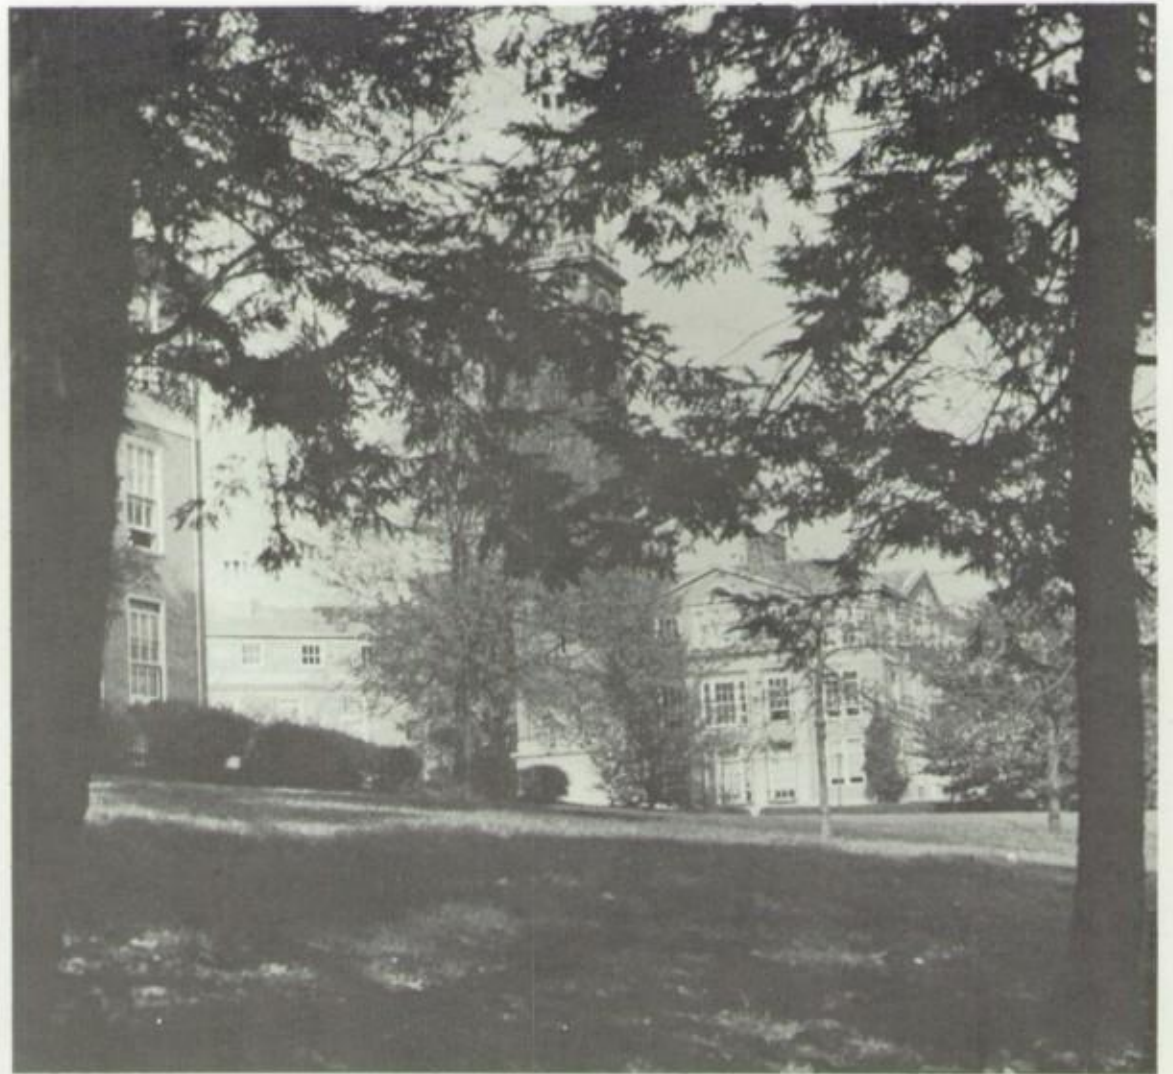

THE QUEEN OF THE DANCE IS REVEALED TO THE CANDIDATES AND AN EXCITED CROWD.

COVETOUS SHYLOCK—POSED IN ASSEMBLY.

In his effort to create a masterpiece, an artist will employ the aid of meticulous sketches of his ideas. One sketch is seldom sufficient—his ultimate work requires the facets of his thoughts to be outlined by numerous drawings. In like manner, a school year cannot be depicted by one activity, one copy block, or one picture. In an effort to reveal the desire for learning acquired by the students, as well as the events of the year, the sketches of this school have been assimilated to form a composite "Sketch" of Withrow High School.

As the beginning chaos of the new school year settled to a routine murmur, a rough blueprint of fall and early winter events evolved. Among these most prominent in our memory are the many uniform days filled with studies that broadened our intellectual skills. Contrasted with these are the colorful nights illuminated by social dances which aided in the maturing growth of healthy personalities.

PLACID STILLNESS LIES OVER WITHROW'S BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS.

AFTER SCHOOL HUNGRY STUDENTS RUSH TO THE BAKE SALE FOR REFRESHMENTS.

During the crisp autumn days many girls played hockey, while athletic-minded boys practiced passing, kicking, running, and tackling for the week-end football games. With the approach of wintry winds sports went inside to the hardcourts. The excitement and hopes for the championship were shared by both squad and spectators during the long basketball season. Girls, too, scorched the cords; GAA offered basketball and volleyball. Down in the pool the dolphins and mermen raced and performed. The advent of spring found action moved to the diamond, track, and court. Our "Sketch" of athletics is not complete without the intramural, interfraternity, and junior high sports, which offered healthful activities and exercise to many.

CUM LAUDE REWARDS HIGH SCHOLARSHIP.

SERENE STILLNESS AIDS STUDENT STUDIES.

HOME TALENT IS AN ASSET TO ANY DANCE.

Some of the most important of the myriad sketches from which we drew our "Sketch" were the curricular activities. Withrow, a comprehensive high school, offers general, academic, college preparatory, and advanced placement programs. Through these various fields pupils are given a wide scope of subject matter. As the artist builds finite creations from his sketches, so do Withrow graduates build their lives, professions, and future happinesses from the fundamental blueprint attained through diligence and perseverance in high school days.

AN INTENSE DESIRE TO LEARN ACCOMPANIED BY ALERTNESS IN CLASS IS A MUST FOR GOOD GRADES.

COAT CHECKS AT THE DANCES—VERY PROFITABLE!

When studies were over, students took part in extra-curricular activities. A "Sketch" of these might depict the football squad scrimmaging on the field, the orchestra practicing for the Minstrels, and Annual and Tower News staffs meeting a deadline. Activities in Tigertown ranged from the chess to the baseball team, from history to skin divers' club. The three o'clock bell is merely the start of a busy day for the participants.

THE TOWER SYMBOLIZES WITHROW'S BEAUTY.

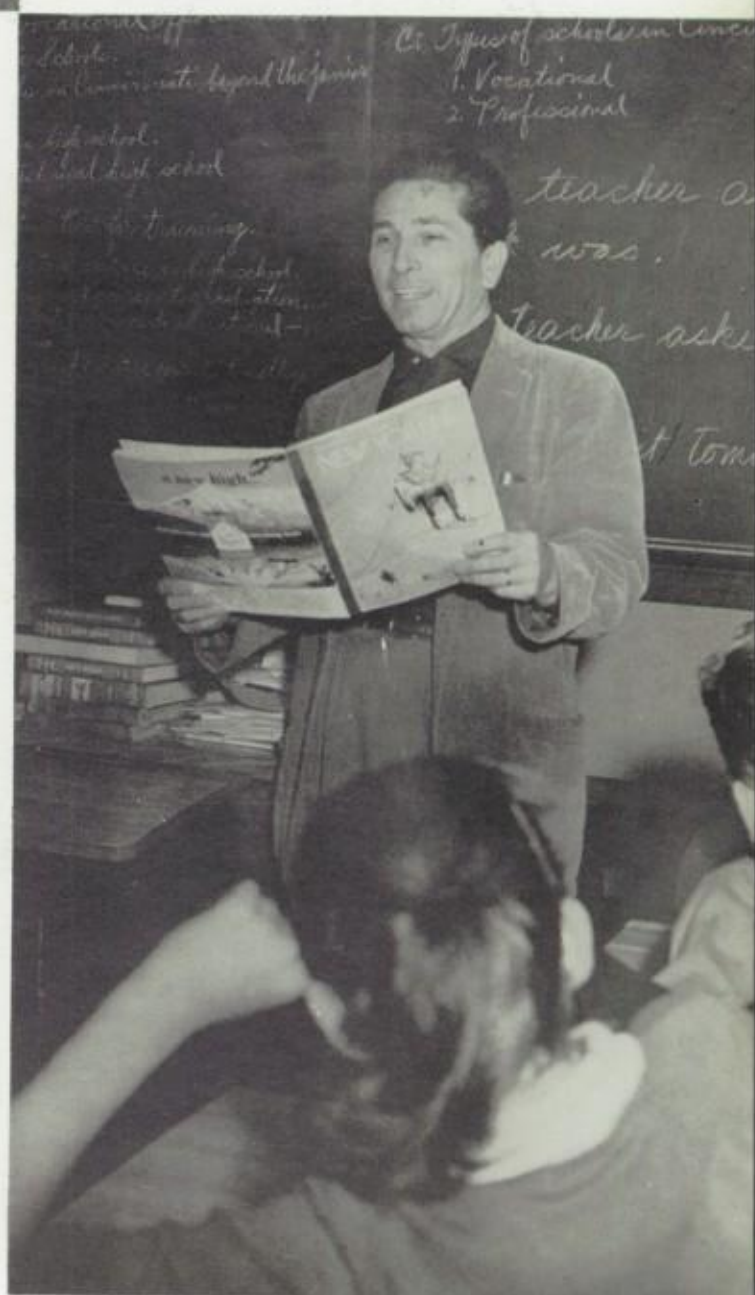

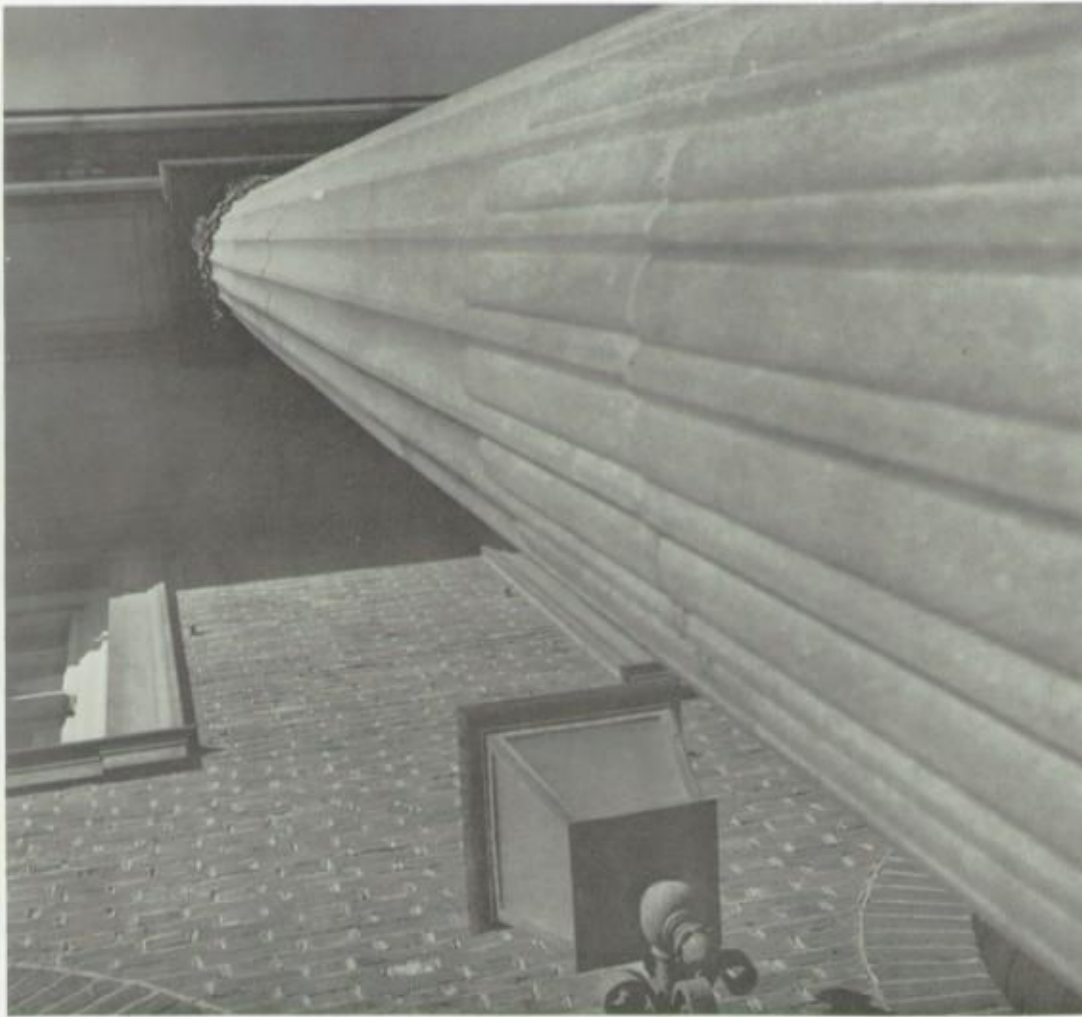

SCHOOL SPIRIT IS BOOSTED BY OUR ENTHUSIASTIC CHEERLEADERS.

The Christmas holidays brought the annual concert, formals, and charity projects. In January all Tiger-town prepared for the ordeal—mid-term exams. After the “blue books” were collected and the grades given out, the Tigers breathed a bit easier. The crowning of royalty at Leap Year Leap and Ivy League Leap drew crowds. Loyal fans cheered to victory the swimming and basketball teams, two of the finest in the city. After the season closed, the teams entered the state competition and tournaments. Student Council initiated a clean up and citizenship week in March. On “Character Day” all were urged to dress up.

PUPILS LISTEN INTENTLY.

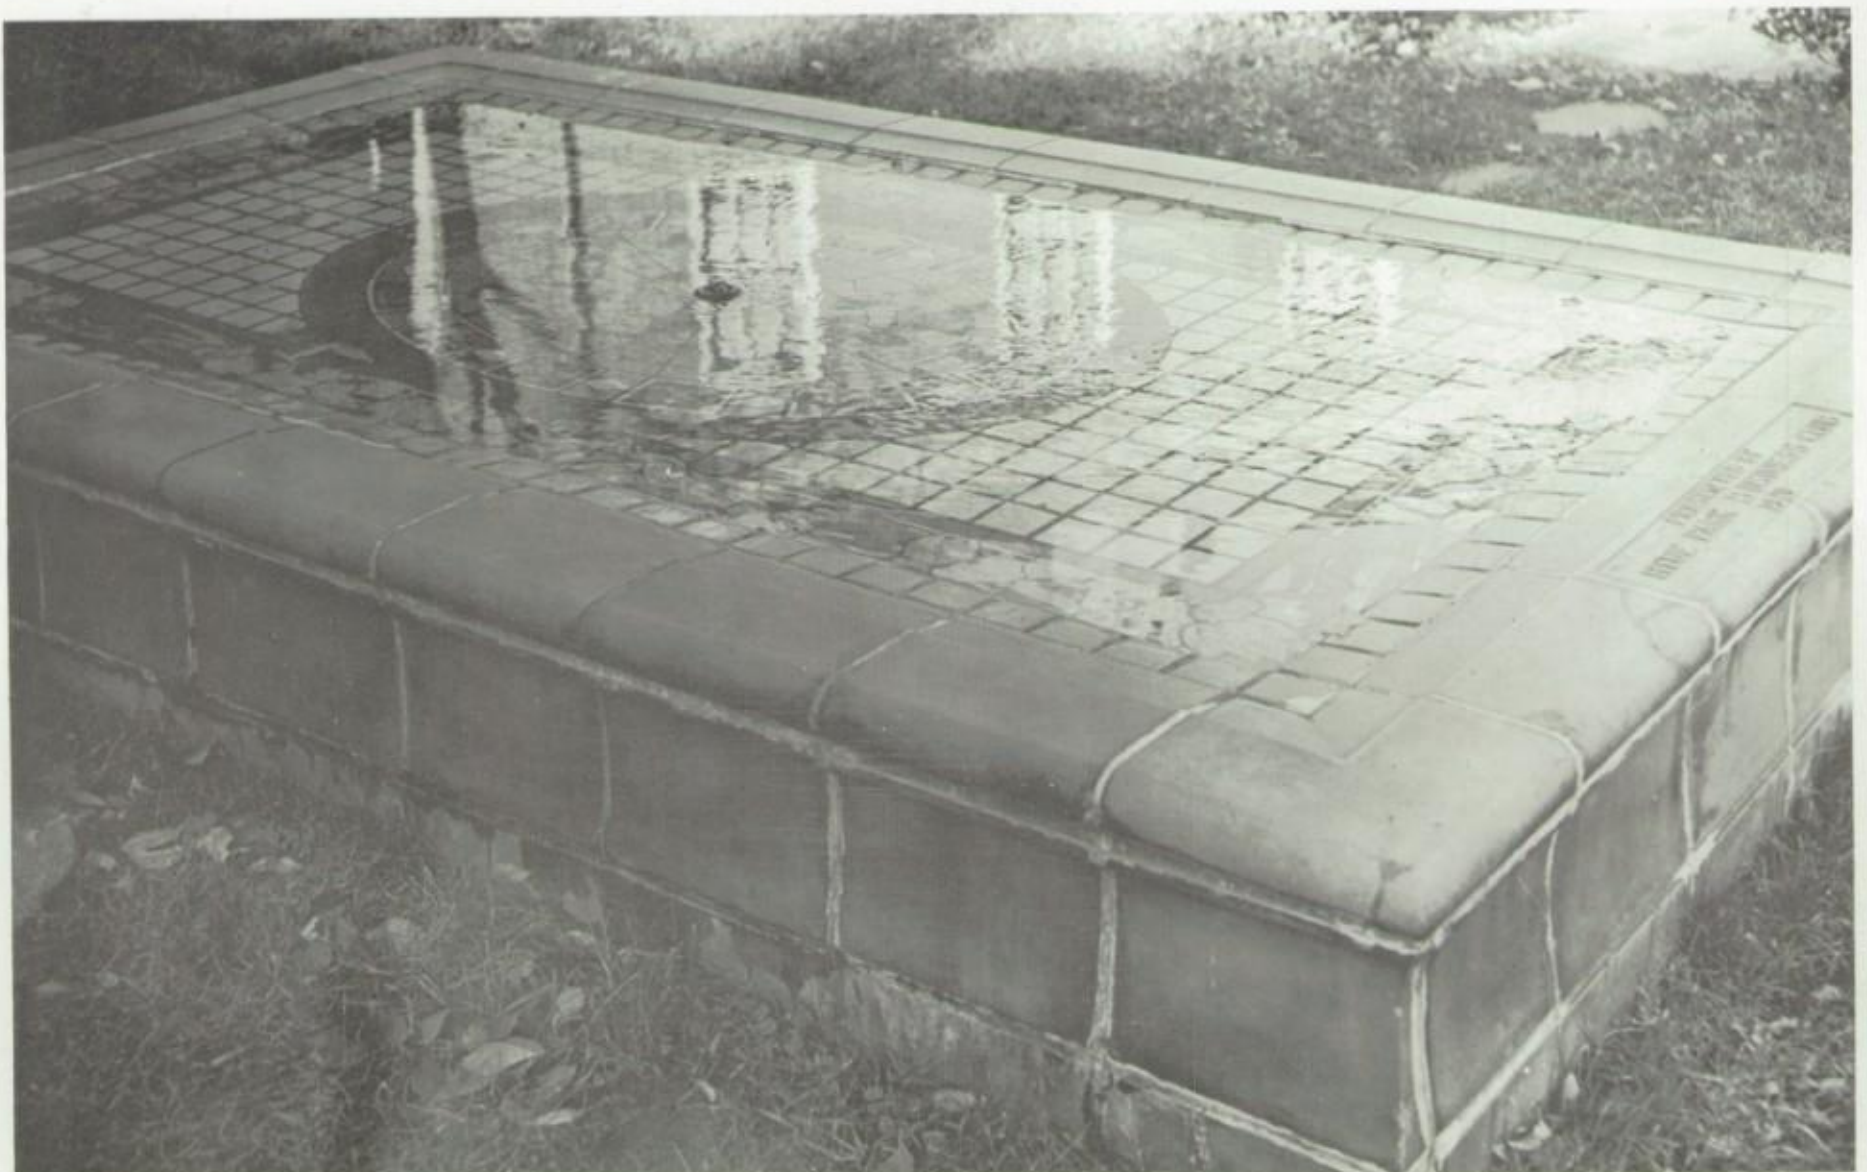

The last "Sketch" of our year at Withrow ended with a note of gayety as well as sadness. Over now are the '60 Minstrels, the magic moments of the proms, the excitement of baseball season, the climatic moments of Awards Day and the splendor of graduation—these are but a few sketches of this segment of our lives. Each has added to each of us. And so we have Withrow, 1960—a "Sketch" of our school, the foundation for our education, the stimulator of our ideals. From this "Sketch" we will strive to create our finished "Portraits of Life."

OUR EVOLUTIONARY VIEWS AND AIMS ENLARGE WITH THE YEARS.

Mr. Cadwallader

ADMINISTRATION

"SIT DOWN; TELL ME YOUR TROUBLES: MAYBE I CAN HELP."

Helpful, understanding, and dignified describes Withrow's principal, Mr. Cadwallader. The students and teachers find him to be a source of guidance and inspiration. He is more familiarly known as Mr. "Cad." His quick thinking and encouragement have solved problems for many worried pupils. Speaking at PTA meetings and helping to plan projects are only two of our principal's various responsibilities. Included in his duties is leading the Pledge of Allegiance in assemblies. Student Council is high on his list of interests. His suggestions benefit both teachers and students. Faculty members and pupils seek his wise counseling. His friendly nod and quiet sense of humor are known to all at Withrow. Mr. Cadwallader's love and pride in Withrow have made him respected by everyone.

Mr. McDevitt

Mr. McDevitt, our young and enthusiastic assistant principal, has become an admired friend to many Withrowites. He is always ready to give a helpful, inspiring hand. Assisting Mr. "Cad" with senior high activities is only part of Mr. McDevitt's duties. He is also kept busy as the acting adviser for Withrow's honor society, Sigma Gamma. Many other responsibilities are added to Mr. McDevitt's already crowded schedule as the school year comes to an end. One of the most time consuming of these extra jobs is the Senior Prom, of which he is supervisor. Exams and graduation do not end his hard work at school. During the summer months he is found behind the desk as principal of summer school.

Mr. Buxton

With skillful technique and definite ability Mr. Harold Buxton heads our junior high department. Although very busy with his job of directing the activities of his Little Withrow, Mr. Buxton was always able to find time to sit down and discuss problems and was forever coming up with a solution. On a dark and dismal day or during exams when everyone's spirits were down, it seemed no one could be blue after he encountered this quiet, yet powerful man with his usual warm and glowing smile, the key to his winning personality. In his past three years at Withrow Mr. Buxton has made many life-long friends and will be among the cherished and fond memories of bygone high school days.

ADVISERS

Need help? See your friendly high school counselor for advice! Although this sounds like a commercial, many students have taken advantage of the expert aid counselors at Withrow give so enthusiastically. Whether your schedule needs a change or whether you need an early excuse, that job will be done by the advisers. If it's college you are interested in, see your counselor for recommendations in your choice of subjects or guidance in selecting one that will be best suited to you. Yes, the counselors at Withrow specialize in YOU—your interests and your abilities. The amount of paper work is staggering, but it never prevents the advisers from giving time to students.

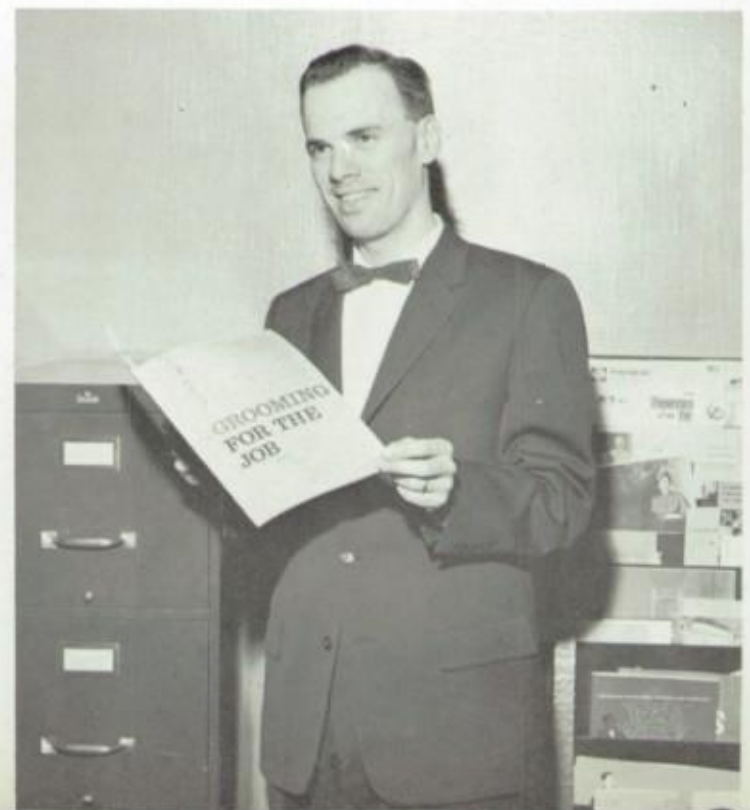

Mr. Colin Yacks

Miss Isabelle Longland; Mrs. Martha Allen; Miss Gladys Evans.

We'll make a feeble effort to sketch for you the myriad duties of Withrow's secretaries. The smooth management of our school is due to their constant efforts. The work varies from day to day but not the competence with which it is handled. Take, for instance, Mrs. Huppertz, Mr. "Cad's" indispensable right hand, who supervises the student assistants in the main office and keeps things on an even keel. "DT" scheduling is one of the duties of Mrs. Fooks in the office of Mr. McDevitt, while Mrs. Longbottom, behind the front desk, must be ready for any unforeseen demand or emergency. Records of seniors, applications for colleges or jobs, transfers-in, transfers-out—you name it and Mrs. Allen in 204 will handle it. The amount of money daily flowing in and out of the school is awe-inspiring but does not faze capable Miss Evans, the treasurer. The records and worries of eighth and ninth grades are handled by Mrs. Stagginborg in 102. Miss Longland manages the details necessary to maintain our efficient library.

ENGLISH

ENGLISH CAN BE AN INSPIRATION!

"To be, or not to be" is a famous quotation which will ring in the ears of seniors for many, many years. The English Department of Withrow has endeavored to teach the student to appreciate the many famous classics as well as to try to encourage the pupil to express himself in writing. The time spent in analyzing and discussing the various English books seems especially rewarding to those of us who are presented with a literary award on Class Day. Four types of English courses are offered at Withrow: modified general, general, college preparatory, and advanced placement. Some visits to the library are planned by our teaching staff so that we might become better acquainted with some of the greats of literature such as Irving, Longfellow, Whittier, Shakespeare.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

THINKING IN A FOREIGN LANGUAGE IS MOST IMPORTANT.

Invigorating and intriguing classes in foreign languages are offered by Withrow's excellent language department. Spanish, French, German, and Latin are taught by dedicated teachers with extensive backgrounds. These subjects provide knowledge, understanding and a certain old-world flavor for pupils. The classes are animated, some including movies and study of phases of life, characters, and history pertaining to the languages. Extra-curricular clubs exist for all interested students of the languages. Skits, song fests, excursions and parties are included in the list of activities for enjoyment of their members. Classes in French, Latin, and Spanish are offered as an elective to junior high pupils for two and one-half periods per week. This new program will enable students to obtain a better fundamental knowledge necessary for the advanced study in college.

MATH

ZEALOUS, EAGER MINDS ARE ESSENTIAL TO MATH.

Realizing that the future prosperity of our nation and the world will depend upon scholars and their knowledge, Withrow's math teachers have endeavored to convince their students of the importance of a real understanding of the principles of mathematics. Much emphasis is now being placed upon this category of science because of the tremendous advancements that are being made. Without mathematics, science would be impossible. Advanced math courses, created at Withrow in recent years for the outstanding students, aspire to produce some of our leaders in the various fields of science. One of the greatest premiums offered through taking math, whether business, general, college preparatory, or advanced, is the ability to reason things out and to think. No matter what occupation each student enters into after graduation the background which he acquired at Withrow will unquestionably be priceless to him. We should indeed be grateful for our hardworking and dedicated mathematics teachers.

SCIENCE

Through tireless efforts of science teachers, you who are now students, will soon take your place among the leaders of our space age. The many courses in the science field come alive when taught by someone who is dedicated to their research. It is not only for your benefit, but also for the sake of our nation's future, that you are urged to go in search of more knowledge of the world and you. Withrow offers such fields as physics, physiology, chemistry, botany, zoology, and biology in which you can acquire the skill to cultivate many new findings. With expert handling, educators mold the minds of students to help in the building of a highway to the future. These men and women lead the world, for it is often said; "as science goes so goes the world."

SOCIAL STUDIES

INFORMALITY—THE KEYNOTE OF SOCIAL STUDY CLASSES.

Withrow's social studies teachers are keenly aware of responsibility in their respective fields. They hope the seniors are departing with an adequate knowledge of the physical, governmental, social, and economic conditions of the world they are about to enter. This sounds like a big order, and so it is. Through courses dealing with such subject matter exciting research problems are handled. "Srofe themes," representing hours of outside work, (even during Christmas holidays) seem in retrospect, an inspiring project. American history is a course which highlights the junior year, while many an interesting discussion or debate occurring in a senior American problems class will remain of lasting interest to those involved. From the ninth grade through the twelfth practical knowledge is offered our students in social studies subjects.

AN ORDINARY PIECE OF METAL CAN BECOME A WORK OF ART IN THE HANDS OF A SKILLED STUDENT.

MUSIC ART

The art and music departments provide vast opportunity and experience for the students talented and interested in these fields. Instrumental music in the form of junior and senior high bands is available for those preferring this type, while choir, girls' and boys' glee clubs and madrigal are suited to all interested in singing. Withrow is rated very high for its music department. The art classes also satisfy a great variety of interests. Aside from drawing and painting, these students learn to work with clay, copper, cork, and other materials. Both classes teach techniques valuable for the future.

The home economics course offered at Withrow is a very worthwhile and rewarding part of the curriculum provided. In these classes all phases of home-making and family relations are covered. The girls get a great deal of satisfaction from seeing the blouses they have been laboring on for so long finally ready to wear, or tasting the delicious cookies they have just made. Besides the enjoyment and companionship these girls acquire during this period, they are attaining valuable and practical information that will be useful to them the rest of their lives.

COMMERCIAL SUBJECTS

Not only does Withrow offer a sound academic program, but it also provides one of the finest and best equipped commercial departments. One subject, typing, prepares the student for the work he may do right after graduation or for writing many a paper in college. Shorthand, another valuable course, also enables the student to go right from school to the job as well as learn to take school notes very rapidly. For the person interested in actually working part-time in business offices and stores, the merchandising classes are available. Methods of clerical work, production, filing, and real business knowledge are gained in office practice, another example of Withrow's superior business courses.

GYM

FIRST AID KNOWLEDGE COMES IN HANDY.

HEALTH

One of the most valuable courses that each of us must successfully complete before leaving Withrow's portals is Senior Health. Sponsored by Miss Blasberg and Mr. Wirth, we learn up-to-date first aid devices and health measures which will be of great value in our future years. Whether it is stopping a case of hiccups or administering first aid to an accident victim, we are sure to apply our knowledge in some way—perhaps even in saving one's life. Physical education, an essential part of our curriculum, teaches us exercises to keep our bodies limber and, above all, instills values of good sportsmanship, responsibility, and leadership in each who participates. Though we may fail to realize it, we acquire many traits in learning to get along with each other. Frequently strains such as: "Roll, roll, roll your hips gently on the floor; merrily, merrily fat goes out the door" can be heard echoing throughout the tunnel as bodies are being conditioned. The motto, fun while learning, is certainly upheld in Withrow's classrooms.

LIBRARIANS

ORAL

Withrow students are fortunate in having one of the finest school libraries in the city. Lining its walls are many informative books, encyclopedias, and magazines, often essential to class work and studying. Books for enjoyment are also available and can be easily found with the aid of one of our capable librarians. Besides furnishing knowledge and entertainment our library offers a perfect atmosphere in which to relax and study. Another fine department of which Withrowites are extremely proud is our oral program. Through these special classes and the guidance and understanding of competent teachers, deaf students gain confidence needed to lead happy, normal lives.

THE OLD SIG'S ARE IN THE TRADITIONAL HUDDLE—WHO'LL BE CALLED NEXT?

"... If you want pleasure you must toil for it." These words, inscribed on our tower, become a reality on one of the most heart-warming and eventful days in the life of deserving Withrow students. Both pupils and teachers alike eagerly fill the stands as the graduating class, led by its officers, takes the traditional walk around the field. The program begins as the upper ten percent is called to the field. Following this, representatives from many organizations bestow awards and scholarships on worthy seniors. Climaxing the morning's activities is the dramatic calling of the Dux's and Sig's.

GRADUATION

Graduation—a time for tears, a time for joy, a time for regret, a time for satisfaction, a time for adventure, and above all, it's a time for hope. Amid all of the excitement and chaos a picture of the past is vaguely recalled. That freshman year when Latin first presented itself to challenge the mind! No one could forget the rushing and the football games during the second year of high school! The pattern of activities had been molded by this time. O, what a lovely time we had at the junior prom! Finally the senior year arrived with numerous rewards. How fast the classes sped by, how many interviews for jobs we had, and how many applications for college had to be mailed! Both the seasons of football and basketball have passed. Minstrels and pep assemblies are gone too. The highlight of the senior year was the prom with its gaiety and charm. So the year ends; the picture fades on all of this and graduation too.

SENIORS

Patti Balton

Witty, serene, and the epitome of sophistication, Patti Balton was busy attending to all her duties on Withrow's campus. Being president of Gens Togata and historian for Dux revealed her ultimate achievements. Pat's scholastic ability and sincere attitude were evident in every phase of her active life at Tigertown. Being Fourth Page Editor of Tower News, she covered numerous sporting events. "Peeb's" presidency of Quill and Scroll and her participation in Dolphin Club, Altruist, and Scribblers won her renown and admiration.

SENIORS

Of the many phases of Jack's school days at Withrow, his abilities in athletics are best known. High on his list of the various sports were football, basketball, and baseball. Although much time and effort were required to maintain his physical skills, Jack also was inclined towards the many fields of learning as was illustrated by his courses in advanced placement math and chemistry. Because of this success in both curricular and extra-curricular activities, it naturally resulted that: "Sigma Gamma Calls—Jack Cunningham!"

SENIORS

One of the most well-rounded pupils at Withrow High during 1959-60 was Sigma Gamma's president—Jerry Cunningham. The skill which Jerry showed in his scholastic achievements (particularly in advanced math) as well as his agility on the football field and basketball court are but two of the reasons why Jerry rose to the top as a leader of the student body. His friendliness and enthusiasm will long be remembered at Withrow and will, doubtless, prove to be invaluable assets in the future of such an individual.

SENIORS

When one thinks of a vivacious, petite miss with a Southern drawl one gets a good picture of Sarah Brennan. Her five years as a Minstrel soloist have brought smiles to many, as they watched her gay, carefree dances. This charming, warmhearted Queen of Tigertown Twirl participated in a great many organizations, including Beta Omega Chi. Her busy schedule also included Senior Choir, of which she was treasurer, and Scribblers of which she was historian. Sarah's singing ability enabled her to be selected to join Madrigal.

POPULARITY POLL

One of the greatest honors bestowed upon a senior is having his or her name listed among those on the Popularity Poll. The categories are varied to include all the qualities necessary to comprise an outstanding senior student. This year two new classifications, "Best All-'Round" and "Most School Spirited," were added to make the list more complete. Because of the importance of scholastic ability, a designated average is required for each nominee. After the calculations of the preliminary elections, the final votes are cast and counted. The long-awaited outcome is usually announced at Tower News' annual valentine dance. This year, because of unexpected bad weather, the event was postponed. An after school sock-hop was the occasion for the announcement. Although this dance was a less formal affair than the real one, the thrill was just as great, if not greater, than it would have been on the original occasion, because of the wait.

Joy Crawford

Holding offices in her many activities was natural for this popular senior girl. Joy's bright personality glowed in her duties as recording secretary of Dux and Scribblers. She also claimed the offices of treasurer of Student Council and vice president of Altruist. Much time was given to after-school sports in GAA. Joy was chosen for her outstanding high school record, both academically and socially, to be "Teen of the Week" in the Cincinnati Post and Times-Star in the beginning of her extraordinarily active senior year.

Known for his sense of humor and his reliability, Ben Farr was called upon to be secretary of Sigma Gamma. His most difficult subjects, which included advanced chemistry and advanced math, kept Ben busy and interested. As president of Alpha Hi-Y he showed leadership ability. Taking part in the Christian organization he found great satisfaction by helping unfortunate families. Showing his athletic ability, he participated in tennis. Ben Farr's bright smile and quiet, friendly manner will be missed by his many friends.

SENIORS

Superior is the word which best described the busy president of Dux Femina. Because of her academic standing, Nancy Edwards was chosen to lead the senior class as vice president. Second to none in Scribblers, she was named Honor Girl in her junior year and the following year became president. Cum Laude boasted Nancy as a member, as did Alpha Beta Kappa, History Club, and Student Council. The three o'clock bell just meant more activity, since GAA and the Annual Business Staff both took the time of this charming senior girl.

Her high scholastic standing and her winning personality merited Ann Godley the office of vice president of Dux Femina. Sincerity and reliability have won her the respect and friendship of her teachers and classmates. Participating in the many activities of GAA and being a Minstrel pony also helped fill this busy girl's days. To add the final touch of perfection, Ann was selected for Cum Laude in her senior year.

SENIORS

Having proved diversified ability and talent in the field of music, popular Allen Fiskus was chosen to be the '59-'60 Senior Band president. For the past two years Allen has been "in the spotlight" as a Minstrel soloist and an indispensable member of Senior Choir. A dimpled smile and friendly "hello" exemplified congeniality—Allen's trademark. His fraternity brothers will remember him as an essential part of Tri Chi which he served in the role of chaplain. Because of all-around ability he was rewarded by a great honor—a call to Sig.

David Gantz

Friendly and well-liked Dave Gantz, Annual photographer editor, was an important asset in the making of this yearbook. Besides fulfilling his duty as vice president of Tri Chi, this active Sig was seen participating in Alpha Hi-Y and History Club. His special likes include boating and sailing, advanced chemistry, and of course, photography. Dave well deserved the honor of being tapped for Cum Laude in recognition of his scholastic achievements. In the future he plans to attend Harvard University to study liberal arts.

The pert little smile of Lois Gwinner was well known around the halls of Withrow. Her energetic personality never seemed to fail, as was proven by her many accomplishments in the school activities. Lois' attractiveness along with her sparkling, light hearted manner helped her gain the position of Tigertown's Mascot. As a high stepping member of the pony chorus, she provided entertainment for the Minstrel audiences. It was a surprise to no one when she was called for Dux. Beauty, brains, and personality suited "Lo" to a tee.

Active, vivacious, and enthusiastic are three adjectives which well describe this senior Dux, Patsy Hawkins. This Awards Day when she called forth her little sister, Patsy again relived that happy moment when she had heard: "For the next gal to be called I offer this clue: She's known for her smile and personality true; in Tower News and Spanish Club she's much to do, while GAA and Minstrels she participates too. As you see her activities are not few, in scholarship and merit she does well pursue. Now, Patsy Hawkins—I'm calling you!"

Wielding the gavel for Student Council this year was able Jon Halsted, a truly deserving Sig. As president of a most important organization at Withrow, Jon well displayed his capability as a leader. Known for his ever-present smile and friendly manner, this conscientious Kappa won many friends. Though often humorous, a serious attitude was by no means lacking, as was shown through his participation in his church group. With all these achievements, Jon will surely have happy memories of his school days at Withrow.

SENIOR PROM QUEEN—MISS ANNE LILES.

Sondra Koenig

Delva Deible

Nancy Van Epps

Weeks of making dates, buying formals, renting tuxedos, and selecting corsages precede the long-awaited Senior Prom. For many months the seniors anticipated this magic dance and made countless preparations for it. The members of Sigma Gamma worked long and hard on programs, favors, table decorations, and other details to make the Pavilion Caprice a beautiful ballroom and the prom a memorable occasion. Nothing was left to chance. Climaxing this dance of dances was the grand announcement—The 1960 Senior Prom Queen. All the candidates and their escorts formed a court as Sigma Gamma president Tom Walker made the thrilling proclamation. He presented a crown, a dozen red roses, a kiss on the cheek, and congratulations to the Queen of the Senior Prom—Miss Anne Liles!

SENIORS

Withrow can proudly laud the merits of its worthy pupils and into this category goes popular Bob Heimann, who has proven himself both an outstanding and industrious student. Bob's deserving membership in Sigma Gamma and the secretarial position in his frat, Tri Chi, have been the immediate results of this renown. But it has not been all work for versatile Bob, who after hours, maintained a high position on the Tiger Golf and Swim teams. For this we say that Bob Heimann is a fine representative of Withrow.

Sue Imhoff

SENIORS

Leadership, intelligence, and athletics are all qualities possessed by vivacious Sue Imhoff. Sue occupied much of her valuable leisure time ably filling the dual roles of treasurer and hockey manager of GAA, and being sergeant-at-arms of ABK Sorority. Her grace and coordination were also shown in her four year participation in Dance Club. When the fall tapping for Cum Laude arrived, Sue was one of the honored chosen. Both as a student and as a leader, Sue won the admiration and respect of all her 1960 classmates.

CUM LAUDE

The epitome of scholastic achievement is ascertained each spring and fall through the selection of deserving students by the faculty members of Cum Laude. The standards of Withrow's chapter in this national honor society are met by those seniors maintaining a 3.56 grade average for eight academic subjects or a 3.36 average for eleven. These pupils are "tapped" at two special assemblies during the year. This year two worthy teachers were added to the faculty section of Cum Laude. They are Miss Eleanor Graham, mathematics teacher, and Miss Helen Taylor, English teacher. Those students enrolled in advanced placement classes may have .5 added to that subject's grade; for college preparatory pupils .1 is added to their grade average. Miss Dorothy Atkins, head of the English Department, is the president of the Withrow chapter. Assisting her are sixteen other teachers, all of whom are quite outstanding in their fields. The thirty-three student members admitted this year were initiated at a formal tea, which was held in Withrow's school library.

THE NEWLY TAPPED MEMBERS OF CUM LAUDE RECEIVE APPLAUSE FROM THE ASSEMBLED STUDENT BODY.

SENIORS

Although active and popular, this vivacious, attractive miss found time to maintain her high scholastic average, well meriting her call to Dux. As prexy of Beta Omega Chi and Dance Club she proved herself an apt leader of fellow Withrowites. While leading basketball and football cheers, Annie created spirit and pep at games. GAA and Student Council completed our peppy Senior's busy day. Yes, everyone at Tigertown will always remember Anne's warm smile of sincere friendliness, and her various contributions.

Owen Hodge

Mix together popularity and cleverness and sprinkle them with a great deal of wittiness and you are sure to come up with a very interesting Sigma Gamma, namely, Owen Hodge. In addition to playing bass for the Presentation Orchestra, Owen was also the creator of some very humorous, though often seemingly pointless, stories, poems, and sayings. His frank opinion and unusual philosophies on life never ceased to both amuse and confuse his fellow classmates who had often counted on this Withrowite to brighten up a dreary day.

Dan McCright

SENIORS

Holding the influential position of Sports Section Editor in the 1959 Annual and Literary Editor of the '60 yearbook, Dan McCright brought much fame to himself and his alma mater, alike. Handling the financial situations of Sigma Gamma proves Dan's capability and trustworthiness. Aside from taking the notes as recording secretary in History Club, he was the vice president of Tau Sigma. Although taking difficult courses in high school, such as advanced standing mathematics and physics, he was able to graduate with a high scholastic average.

What are the ingredients for an outstanding individual? Most certainly Melanie Shaffer could be used to exhibit many of the necessary qualities. With "Mel" hard work was a prerequisite. As treasurer of Dux Femina and chaplain of BOX sorority, she accepted responsibility fully. Melanie also won acclaim for her academic achievements by being tapped for Cum Laude. GAA, History Club, Minstrels, and the Annual Staff received support and attention from this senior girl. Surely anyone could benefit from the recipe "Mel" used.

Judy Weiss

SENIORS

Judy Weiss' scholastic ability and sincere manner were indicated in the different phases of her active life at Withrow. Her writing ability earned for Judy the position of vice president of Quill and Scroll, and first page co-editor of Tower News. Being the corresponding secretary of Scribblers and a member of the Minstrels make-up committee took up much of this Dux's time. Among her other activities were GAA, Gens Togata, and Alpha Beta Kappa, of which she was recording secretary. Judy was worthy of Withrow's greatest thrill, a call to Dux.

Roger Steubing

SENIORS

Admired by teachers and popular among his classmates, Roger Steubing proved to be one of Withrow's best known senior boys. Being a member of Sigma Gamma and participating in varsity basketball took up much of his time. One of Roger's most thrilling moments occurred when he was tapped for Cum Laude in the beginning of his senior year. Advanced chemistry and math show Roger's extensive academic ability. Although, quiet, Roger has made many friends here at Withrow with his ever-ready smile and friendly personality.

If you have ever had the urge to do something unusual just for a laugh, then you will enjoy the antics of these seven students. In spending four years at Withrow, every senior develops one certain "wish" that he would like to see come true before graduation. Here the 1960 Annual introduces a new feature known as "Senior Dreams."

Tom Walker

A set of drums with the initials "T. W." inscribed upon them was quickly recognized as belonging to Tom Walker, a versatile personality on Withrow's campus. His musical talent was displayed both in senior band, of which he was vice prexy, and throughout the years as a Minstrel soloist. Active interest in outside activities was recognized by his participation in History and Physics Clubs. "Tom-Tom" could be heard "going to town" at many social events for he served as drummer for a dance band, the "Teen Tones."

SENIORS

Skill in leadership and other activities comprised the basic character of this pert Dux. Barbara Williams' scholastic ability and sincerity were evident throughout her busy Withrow life. Her literary attributes won her the position of Editor-in-Chief of Tower News, a difficult job requiring time and energy. It was also responsible for her being honored as a member of Scribblers and Quill and Scroll. Her ABK sisters chose Barb as their president. The '60 class will surely remember the timid yet friendly smile of TN's editor.

STUDENT COUNCIL

TOP BRASS DISCUSSES IMPORTANT ISSUES.

As an influential body of Withrow High School, Student Council was able to attain many of its important goals this year. John Halsted acted as presiding officer and chaplain; while vice president Carole Federle headed the monitors, a group of students willing to devote their time for the improvement of corridor conduct. Garrie Skidmore handled the secretarial duties, while Joy Crawford worked to balance the books. In the fall our Student Council joined Woodward's to sponsor a football dance which improved feelings between these rivals. At Thanksgiving, Council held its annual assembly in which it gave needy schools and families baskets of food. This group also sponsored a very successful Clean-Up Week in which each day had a special significance. On Character Day a great majority of the students came to school decked in dress clothes, making a wonderful impression on all. By selling shakers, and stationery, and jackets, this group was able to meet its expenditures. The Junior Prom and a scholarship were only two more projects given by this group, devoted to the betterment of Withrow.

Officers: J. Halsted, Pres.; Mr. Yacks; C. Federle, Vice Pres.; G. Skidmore, Secy.; J. Crawford, Treas.

Each sorority and fraternity at Withrow sent two representatives to a combined organization, known as the Interfraternity Council. This group, consisting of the presidents and vice presidents, discussed and solved the problems of social clubs. When any member or particular club felt that a subject needed explaining, a meeting of the Council was called. This year, because of strict grading rules set by the Board of Education, the problem of inactive members was debated by officers.

Created five years ago for the benefit of junior high pupils and betterment of Withrow, the student council has endeavored to create stronger bonds of loyalty between the school and its students. Representatives elected from each home room reported to their classmates the actions of Council. The cabinet consisted of President Jim Brown, Vice President Tommy Edwards, Secretary Nancy Underhill, Sergeant-at-Arms Dave Sherman, and Treasurer Jenny Spencer. Mr. Kimble ably guided the junior high student council during all the meetings and extra activities.

CHOREAN DANCE CLUB

Leading exercises, teaching new steps, and composing dances were part of the duties of the officers and group leaders of Chorean Dance Club. Each Thursday meeting was called to order by President Anne Liles, while the minutes and dues were taken by Nancy Davis and Ann Godley, respectively. Vice President Patsy Hawkins was always on hand to help. This year the activities consisted of attending the dance symposium and arranging a tea and program for the dance club mothers. The girls followed the theme "Weather" in presenting their program.

SCRIBBLERS

"SPAGHETTI DINNER IS BEING SERVED."

Under the capable leadership of Nancy Edwards, Scribblers, a club devoted to the appreciation of writing and literature, had a very successful year. Since the members are chosen by an original poem, short story, or essay, they have written, all are talented and very interested in this field. This year Scribblers sponsored a spectacular spaghetti dinner to which parents, pupils, and faculty were invited. In this Italian atmosphere, the members served the many guests, and after the enjoyable meal was finished, the teachers provided a talent show.

DUX FEMINA

DUX DONUTS PROVIDE ENERGY FOR ENTHUSIASTIC CHEERERS.

After deliberation by teachers and present members, twelve deserving girls are chosen from the junior class to become the new members of Dux Femina. This exclusive club for outstanding senior girls was organized in 1947. To be chosen, a girl must have a high academic average and a well-rounded set of activities. Throughout the year, these girls are busy making money which is placed in their scholarship fund. Selling their familiar doughnuts at football games, an open house, and the senior boat ride, all represent their worthwhile efforts. Once again on Awards Day the tension begins to mount as students are seated in the stadium. A sudden hush hovers over the anxiously awaiting crowd—who will be honored in the poems? Cheers of excitement rise as each classmate runs to the field. Tears of joy, a red carnation, and a gold bracelet will be well remembered by everyone.

A hush fell over the crowd in the stadium on a balmy day in June. From the huddle on the field a chorus of voices resounded through the stadium, "Sigma Gamma calls . . ." and a thrilled junior boy rushed to the call. It was Awards Day and the old Sigs were calling forth the new members of Sigma Gamma, Withrow's honorary fraternity for senior boys. These select twelve are chosen on the basis of high scholarship, participation in activities, and personal integrity. Throughout the school year Sigma Gamma sponsored Tigertown Twirl, a carnival and dance in November, and the Senior Prom in May. A progressive dinner with Dux Femina provided enjoyment for the Sigs. During the hectic first week of school they helped with registration. In truth it can be said these elite twelve, picked by teachers and last year's members, are Withrow's finest.

Handwork, patience, cooperation, and long hours are all blended together to create our Withrow Annual. The Art and Literary departments work side by side to make it the fine book that it is. The pictures, many taken by our own candid photographers, are then sent to the Art Staff. Here the members arrange the photographs in appropriate layouts. Finally these "blueprints" are rushed to the Literary Staff for copy, page heads, and captions. After these steps have been completed, the pages are sent to the printer and the finished product is returned. All these people, making up both staffs, are the creators of our terrific 1960 Annual "Sketch."

The center of the Withrow Annual staff is the advisers and editors. Mrs. Ladley directing the literary staff, Mr. Mueller managing the art personnel, and Mr. Rhollans handling business, all work together to maintain productiveness in their respective fields. Essential were all the editors. Dan McCright and his assistant, Nancy Davis, were responsible for the development of effective copy for our yearbook. Editing the art staff was Locky Doench, aided by Judy Snyder, who supervised production of layouts. Completing this triangle of components, the business staff, headed by Karen Ennis, handled all transactions. Through the cooperation of advisers, editors, and workers, an outstanding book was produced.

The business staff, headed by Karen Ennis, had charge of all the financial matters concerning the yearbook. Keeping track of money from picture sales and Annual subscriptions was just part of their daily chores. To make certain that all bills were paid was another of their many duties. Nancy Vielhauer and Carl Ingram, working together as a team, began selling ads in September. Choosing the subject and taking the picture started the work of David Gantz's photography crew. Developing and printing the negatives was also part of the job.

TOWER NEWS

Miss Betty Hummel, Faculty Adviser

Bright lights and constant clatter of typewriters characterize deadline nights in the Tower News office. Phones ringing, reporters rushing in and out, voices rising and falling as the editors discuss make-ups, all merge to create the atmosphere in which the weekly Tower News is originated. A feeling of pressure and excitement reigns, capturing the hearts of the most devoted of the staff members and continually intriguing new reporters. Late work hours, endless headlines, misplaced articles, and rush stories are all forgotten on Thursday when a surprisingly well-organized paper is viewed in print. The hope of obtaining an All-American rating, which they have been honored with for several consecutive years, keeps the staff working to follow the tradition. Long, tedious hours of hard work again prove most rewarding when the Tower News staff achieves this top award. Barb Williams, editor-in-chief; Miss Betty Hummel, adviser; page editors and their assistants; art and business departments; exchange editors and reporters; all can be justly proud of their weekly publication.

QUILL AND SCROLL

J. Weiss, Vice Pres.; P. Balton, Pres.; K. Lewis, Secy.; J. Ferguson, Treas.

During the year 1957-58, the Withrow Tower News staff re-established their chapter of the international honor society for high school journalists—Quill and Scroll. Each year the chapter chooses from among the staff those juniors and seniors who have contributed the most to the publication and who maintain a rank in the upper one-third of their classes. The 1959-60 Quill and Scroll Society at Withrow consisted of eleven ardent supporters of the weekly paper known as Tower News. Their concentrated efforts, along with those of their fellow members of the staff and the adviser, Miss Betty Ann Hummel, aided the Tower News in receiving yet another All-American national rating and the respect of each one of its readers.

SENIOR CHOIR

Perhaps one of the most vital and, to its members, invaluable activities at Withrow is the Senior Choir. Composed of approximately one hundred diligent singers, this organization has captured the hearts of the student body. The unforgettable pleasure of the first glimpse of the flowing purple robe, the crisp white stole, and the solemnly glowing candles creates an aura of reverence and dignity for the Christmas Concert. The work-filled practice sessions during first bell, the indescribable excitement of the bus trips to contests, the concentration and enthusiasm are as much a part of Withrow's choral organization as the piano, baton and director. Through Mr. Ansel Martin's devotion and president Andrew Fitzpatrick's administration the choir had another eventful year.

TWO JUNIOR CHOIR MEMBERS HARMONIZE IN A MELODIOUS DUET.

JUNIOR CHOIR

Mi-me-ma-mo-moo are strange musical sounds which come from the Junior Choir, directed by Mr. O'Rourke. The choir gives all pupils with an interest in music the chance to display their vocal talents, and cooperation and ambition are fused to start development of native ability. The members are chosen because of their sense of rhythm and ability to read notes—skills tested by means of sight reading. They are receiving superb training and working for a position in Girls' Glee Club, Mixed Chorus or Senior Choir. The chorus adds a bit of spark and melodious charm to each program in which it takes a part, with young voices blending harmoniously in song, as every singer rivets his eyes steadfastly on the waving baton. Their lovely numbers in the Christmas Concert are results of long and tiring, yet rewarding practice. A junior spring concert makes the work worthwhile.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

An important constituent of the Withrow music department is the Girls' Glee Club. Lending variety to the various cultural programs of the school, the glee club took part in the annual Christmas and Early Spring Concerts. The delicate harmony of these voices provided subtle color to the waltz production number of the annual Withrow Minstrels. Through constant efforts this group of sixty strove to master the techniques, theory, and appreciation of music, whether modern or classical.

Our 1959-60 Senior Band excelled as one of the best bands in Ohio. As a vital part of football games, along with the intricate baton routines and high stepping marches of the majorettes, it provided half-time entertainment. To arouse school spirit, several members of the band, aided by the majorettes, got together in the mornings before school as a "Dutch Band." Crowds of Withrowites followed the musicians, who acted as modern pied pipers, to the Tower, where the band cheers were loudly echoed. The annual concerts, held at Christmas and in the spring, plus many enjoyable assemblies, gave these musicians a fine opportunity to display their talents. Under efficient Allen Fiskus, president, our band gained musical techniques and valuable playing experience. The Senior Band members were amply rewarded for their participation and hard work when, on Awards Day, each of them received a charm and Smittie's smile.

JUNIOR HIGH BAND

Thumbing through our sketch book, we Withrowites see the junior high band busily at work. In one scene they are tramping up and down the field dressed in colorful attire. Our imagination has them attempting to improve, or rather perfect, their timing and formation through long, hard hours of tedious practice. We also picture them playing for the junior high football team during intermission and half time. Their selections are the popular songs of the day or the favorite school songs such as Withrow's Alma Mater. Still another scene is the one after the game. The band members load into the buses, some ready to go home, some to Frisch's, and still others to an open house.

ENTERTAINMENT ALMOST TOPS PROFESSIONAL ACTS.

Supplementing our education, assemblies have varied in content and appeal. Many excellent programs have been presented for our benefit throughout the year. Whether it was an exhilarating pep assembly or a frank, down-to-earth discussion of teen-age behavior, we were assured that class time was not being wasted. Not to be forgotten were those presented by our fellow students. Those on stage gained confidence and responsibility while the audience was bursting with mingled pride and admiration for them. Many a program caused us to ponder thoughtfully over the topic and give us that bit of extra information not usually found in textbooks.

A contagious silence spreads rapidly through the anxious audience as the lights go down and the rolling drums are heard. The moment which everyone awaits is here. With the signal from "Smittie's" baton the famous presentation orchestra booms forth, and then our prancing ponies, in their exquisitely colored costumes, come dancing rhythmically onto the stage. This, our opening number, is Withrow Minstrels' introduction to the "show of shows." We bubble with pride as we watch our very talented friends taking part in this incomparable variety show. The unforgettable 1960 ponies tripped on, to the stirring strains of "Hallelujah," sung by the harmonious voices of the opening chorus.

Providing the between-acts entertainment for the 1960 Minstrels were the hilarious endmen and their prank-filled skits. Smittie's presentation orchestra, garbed in glittering blue and white uniforms, accompanied all numbers, and bound the show together with a perfect touch.

The vocal soloists, trios, and dancing stars were the keys from the beginning of tryouts to the finale of the last performance of the 1960 Withrow Minstrels. Musical fantasies were depicted through the voices of Kathy McKee, Allen Fiskus and Barb Buchanan, and Andy Fitzpatrick. Other ingredients such as the dances of Sarah Brennan, Judy Monroe, Tommy Edwards, Donna Ring, Sally Martin, Margo Becraft, Bonnie Heimann and Judy Baioni added to the marvelous production. The show would not have been complete without the talent of the Lovette Trio, The Four Jokers and a Deuce, along with a few dixieland melodies by "Smitties' Rejects."

The doormen, usherettes, and hard working art crew help to maintain smoothness in the producing of the Minstrels. The attendants are chosen from the junior and senior class by Mr. Srofe, the adviser. Every night during the show, the girls, dressed in formal attire, guide patrons to their seats. Under the category of art crew come many important tasks. The backdrops for the production numbers, props, the marquee, and programs are all made by this committee headed by Dave Allen.

The make-up committee, armed with rouge and powder, swiftly attacks all members of the cast. When the costumers take over a school girl is transformed like magic into a Russian princess. Through the combined efforts of make-up and costuming, a typical high school bobby-soxer becomes a glittering star. When the curtain rises the stage crew's responsibilities begin. How else could a paper become a soft yellow ball of harvest moon? Even when the show is over one brings back fond memories through the scrapbook. Indispensable are the backstagers.

OFFICE HELPERS

"SOUNDS VERY IMPORTANT; IS MR. CADWALLADER IN HIS OFFICE?"

Many activities go on in the offices, which are the center of Withrow's important daily functions. The strenuous work schedule is lightened by the girls who volunteer their time to help out. As one girl busily operates the buzzing switchboard, another runs errands for Mr. Cadwallader or other administrators. Laboriously looking up student records and typing the office memoranda, they spend their time constructively. The duty of filling the numerous teachers' mail boxes and managing all other postal transactions is also fulfilled by these efficient workers. They handle the useful intercom system and are always on hand to answer telephones and give information to visitors at Withrow.

Two of the busiest places in Withrow are the lunchroom and the bookroom. Needless to say, reliable helpers are essential to maintain necessary efficiency. As the famished students wait in line for some of that sumptuous food, the gals on the lunchroom staff wrap sandwiches and keep replenishing the various food selections for the counter. Seeing that there is always a supply of silverware and trays is the duty of the boys on the staff. During the beginning of school, or around exam time, it is possible for one to see a line of ambitious students leading to the bookroom in search of new supplies. The boys in the bookroom always have plenty of the student necessities on hand.

Two important and essential groups who ably assist Withrow are the library and projection staffs. Helpful as well as efficient, the librarians aid interested students in seeking desired information. In addition, they keep the vast supply of books in order and in good condition. Always willing to help, they create a pleasant working atmosphere for those Withrowites who use the library for study. Necessary also to our school is the projection crew. Serving in Minstrels and also in the assemblies, these boys help out with the behind-the-scene work, a vital part of every production. How many interesting as well as educational films one would miss if it were not for the extra hours these boys give to bring this pleasure to us!

In all the hurry and scurry of our busy Withrow year many articles managed to be misplaced. At these times the "lost and found" in room 102 was an aid to careless students. Mr. Buxton, his secretary, and some student helpers operated a service to help recover lost articles.

If a group of eager Physics students meets to plan club activities, one can always be sure that the results will be interesting. Since the aims of this club are to learn, to perfect skills, and to understand Physics, educational excursions were taken to make the year complete.

Sigma Hi-Y, an affiliate with the state organization of the YMCA, is made up of junior boys who are interested in furthering brotherhood. Guided by Mr. Pitcher, these boys have practiced Christian fellowship spirit. During Thanksgiving and Christmas, Sigma Hi-Y's provide unfortunate families with baskets of much needed food. Basketball competition with other city Hi-Y groups completes the list of activities.

An essential part of the activities around Withrow is the Offset Club. Printing football schedules, Minstrel programs, and other important items keeps them active throughout the year. Under the guidance of Mr. Haymond, these aspiring printers acquire much valuable knowledge about this profession. Accuracy, imagination, and efficiency are traits readily attained through their work which results in a deep feeling of pride.

Stuffed animal sales at Christmas time and numerous bake-sales add to the club's treasury. The girls gain valuable knowledge and experience in business. The Merchandising Club is part of a co-operative system set up between the public schools and the businessmen of the city. The core of this program is on-the-job training. Among their activities is the Spring Social, where the co-ops and representatives from the department stores gather for a banquet and a meeting. Conventions and DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) make the business world seem bright.

HISTORY CLUB

As president of Withrow's History Club, Keith Michael directed an assortment of programs for the past year. With the help of the faculty adviser, Miss Monica Caveman, the club was entertained, as well as informed, by speakers from Iraq, Japan, and West Germany. Movies, slides, and panel discussions helped to make the '60 school year more interesting. History Club, being a branch of the United States Delegation Council of the world Assembly of Youth, sent members to the Junior Council on World Affairs. At this four state seminar, topnotch guest speakers and discussions on various world-wide problems were presented. After the mid-term exams, history students with a "B" average were invited to join.

"To Gens Togata"—Latin Club members blend their voices to mark the beginning of another fun-filled meeting. Producing plays in the Latin language proved an interesting and amusing activity for every "Puer" and "Puella" involved, while members became better acquainted with the customs and legends of ancient Rome. A capable "consul prima" presided and "aediles" were elected from each class to report on the monthly meetings. Miss Grove, who has played a large part in the growth of Gens Togata since its founding in 1931, and Mr. Zimmermann acted as faculty advisers.

Founded in 1919, Spanish Club has played an important part in the furthering of students' interest in the Spanish language and customs. Led by their sponsor, Miss Miceli, the club had many interesting meetings at which they played Spanish games, viewed slides, movies, and had guest speakers. The highlight of the year was a Christmas party.

The spirit of French goes beyond the classroom among these students who take a real interest in the many aspects of the subject. Under the guidance of Miss Schroeder, who spent several years in France, the members are made more familiar with their subject through stories, skits, songs, and speakers. By participating in these programs members gain a greater knowledge of the spoken language and at the same time share the friendship of others with similar interests. One of the most important dates on the club's calendar is the annual Christmas party. Carols are sung in French. This year the club enjoyed giving a presentation of "Blue Beard."

To obtain their praiseworthy goals, members of Future Homemakers Club sold desk sets this year. With this financial aid, these girls promoted friendship and good will with the underprivileged. Parties were given for both orphans and old people during Christmas and at Easter.

Jr. Y-Teens members, meeting bi-weekly with their adviser, Mrs. Berger, plan many worthwhile projects. This active club of seventh and eighth grade girls is part of the youth program sponsored by the YWCA. Parties, potato chip sales, and clothing drives provide them with needed money.

THALIAN PLAYERS

A THALIAN CAN REGISTER ANY EMOTION—FURY, HOPE, TRAGEDY.

"All the world's a stage. . . ." These great Shakespearian words become a reality in Withrow's drama organization, Thalian Club. If one has a knack for acting and interest in drama, Thalian is the club to join. Talent and enthusiasm in acting are usually discovered and encouraged in Miss Rosenberger's drama and speech classes. This organization not only gives an assembly in spring for the school, but also shows the true Christmas spirit when it visits the Findlay Neighborhood House each year and shares its talents and gifts with the less fortunate. Meetings consist of business and entertainment devised by members. Climaxing a whole year of fun-filled events, the enthusiasm of the club carries members to a spring picnic.

Alpha Y-Teens, open to all senior high girls, is sponsored by Mrs. Evelyn Hodory. Being affiliated with the YWCA, this club offers much to its members. Speakers, such as Kathleen Wellman, noted charm expert, create interest as well as give advice on self-improvement. In keeping with this idea, the Y-Teens presented a style show, featuring fashions from Rollman's. The treasury is increased by the annual potato chip sale and frequent bake sales. At Christmas time, the club gave a party for the girls of Strietman Cottage at the Children's Home. An Easter egg hunt at the orphanage was the Y-Teen's Easter project. Withrow can be proud of these energetic girls for their unselfish attitudes.

SOCIAL CLUBS

A "Sketch" of the social life at Withrow is one depicting the many activities of the social clubs, more popularly called sororities and fraternities. These clubs undertake projects ranging from formal teas to old clothes parties. Among some of the outstanding parties were Iota's "Hood Party" and the BOX-XEX "Beatnik Party." During football and basketball season ABK and Chi Sig sponsored open houses. TS threw a most successful "Beatnik" Open House. Throughout the year many clubs gave dances. These included Tally-Ho's Mardi Gras, Kytives' Spring Swing, and ABK's Gridiron Gallivant. About the most popular dance was Ivy League Leap, given by Tau Sig.

One of the most heralded events is the annual sale of Names 'n Numbers. This publication contains the names, addresses, and phone numbers of all social club members and their friends. Planning rush parties is a major task during the first part of the year. The vice president of each club is in charge of all rushing details. This year many of the clubs planned novel parties. BOX presented a Cosmopolitan Tea, while ABK had a Hawaiian Luau. AXD's theme was Altruist in Wonderland. Tally-Ho's Bavarian Garden Party, Kappa's Smorgasbord, Tau Sig's Monte Carlo Party, and Tri Chi's Scavenger Hunt were some of the outstanding rush parties. After rushing was concluded, pledging—that week of obeying every active's wish—began for all the pledges. Working closely with each group is a very active parents' organization which helps to coordinate all activities.

Highlighting Withrow's social year, Tau Sigma sponsored many outstanding events. Activities well remembered were TS's Ivy League Leap and also their "real swinging way out" Beatnik Open House, which drew a wild crowd. Withrowites awaited eagerly the annual sale of the "Names and Numbers" directory. For the first time not only those in social clubs were listed but also those independents who wished to be mentioned. Teamwork among the TS's was exemplified in that they came out second place in interfraternity sports. Memories of stag and date parties will be remembered well for the enjoyment of those present.

If it were possible the Annual would gladly devote an entire division to the play-by-play account of Withrow football. Unfortunately, available space is hard to find, and we can only present a brief sketch of the highlights. Igniting the revived Tigers was our newly acquired varsity mentor, Raymond Hartker, who returned to his Alma Mater with a good plan to reinstate Withrow in the ranks of the undefeated. Statistics show the varsity as having had a mediocre, if not miserable, season; but to tell this to one of Coach Hartker's men is second only to committing honorable Hari Kari. First, there was the Milford game in which the Tigers brought back visions of Withrow's former football self while turning back the Eagles, seventy-one to nothing. But our good luck ended and we were only able to salvage the Walnut game from the result. It seems Eagles bring success on the Withrow turf. Now that the season is over we can analyze the over-all picture and from the experience gained by the many sophomores, all Withrow can expect great things to be done by next year's varsity squad. So we offer you a sketch of football in the fall of '59.

Action of the '59 football squad centered around the twenty lettermen on this year's team. At each practice session these boys showed the leadership and responsibility typical of all Withrow athletes. Off the field they set the example of gentlemanly conduct for future Tiger gridmen. QUEEN NANCY WAVES TO THE 1959 PREVIEW CROWD.

Rationalization seems to be in order for our hapless Tigers, who suffered one of the worst seasons in Withrow's long history. A new coach, with an entirely different system, gave Withrow's varsity a hard road to travel. But contrary to the accepted idea, the year was a prosperous one, as Coach Hartker succeeded in laying a strong foundation for future Withrow wins. An example of this was the Milford game, in which the Tigers ran rampant over the undermanned Eagles. Capitalizing on the oppositions' penalties, the Bengals used their new single wing to dominate the entire game, while marking up seventy-one points on nine touchdowns. Making TD's were Lowe, Smedley, Starks, Dent, Cunningham, James, and Ritchie with one each; while Lou Conners tallied two.

The Bengals of Withrow edged the Bombers of St. Xavier statistically, but fell prey to Lady Luck in their first encounter with the Catholic League. After a scoreless first quarter, the St. X boys chalked up two markers in the second. The Withrow Eleven controlled the ball in the third quarter, and climaxed a sixty yard drive with Louis Conners hitting paydirt early in the final period. The try for the conversion failed and the Bombers, for the seventh straight season, beat the Tigers—this time fourteen to six. In their third non-league encounter, Withrow met Elder, the number two team in the state. The Panthers started their machine rolling in the second quarter with an 82 yard drive for a score. Three more TD's were scored in this half on a variety of passes. With a twenty-eight point lead at the half, Elder added two more TD's in the third period. The Tigers' lone touchdown was scored by John Smedley from the fifteen, after a series of passes by quarterback Elam. The Tigers fell to the Panthers forty-two to six.

Stimulated "beatnik" style, by an arousing student body, our Tigers beat rival Walnut Hills, twenty-one to six. First-half play was a stalemate, as Withrow dominated action but was unable to score. After the Homecoming pageant, our team proceeded to make three tallies on sixty-three, seventy-five and forty-two yard drives. The Tiger star was quarterback Cunningham, who led plays and scored all three markers. Disappointment was eminent, though as we lost, through injuries, nearly five hundred pounds of lineman in the form of Tigers Blannon and Britton.

A BULL-DOG IS VICIOUSLY ATTACKED BY JACK CUNNINGHAM.

In their first league match the Tigers renewed one of the oldest rivalries in Cincinnati football history by meeting the Big Reds of Hughes. The Reds, capitalizing on two Tiger fumbles, scored late in the first quarter and again in the second, on a ninety-yard sprint. Withrow caught fire in the last half with markers by Conners and Burdick. Thomas' tackling of speedster Larry Hughes after a seventy-three yard chase was a play to be remembered. The final score found Hughes the victor, eighteen to thirteen. Against potent Roger Bacon's mighty Spartans Withrow did not fare well, losing forty-one to nothing. All-city captain Buehler scored once for the Spartans, who used a split-T formation. Poor defense and slippery turf impeded the Tiger's efforts. An end run by Roberts gave Bacon their last tally. After the game, the many "beatniks" in the stadium flocked to the very unusual TS "Beat" Open House.

CO-CAPTAINS WAIT EXPECTANTLY FOR THE FATAL FLIP.

Withrow, showing its wounds after the Walnut game, fell to Taft forty-four to fourteen. Recovering a pair of Withrow fumbles in the first quarter, the Senators quickly chalked up two TD's. Louis Conners and John Smedley each tallied one in the second quarter for Withrow's only markers of the game. The West High eleven blanked the Tigers thirty-three to nothing at Withrow Stadium. During most of the one-sided game, the West High Mustangs controlled the pig-skin. Butch Williams sprinted thirty-five yards for one of the few Tiger first downs. In the remaining minutes of the fourth frame the Tigers caught fire by using a series of short passes.

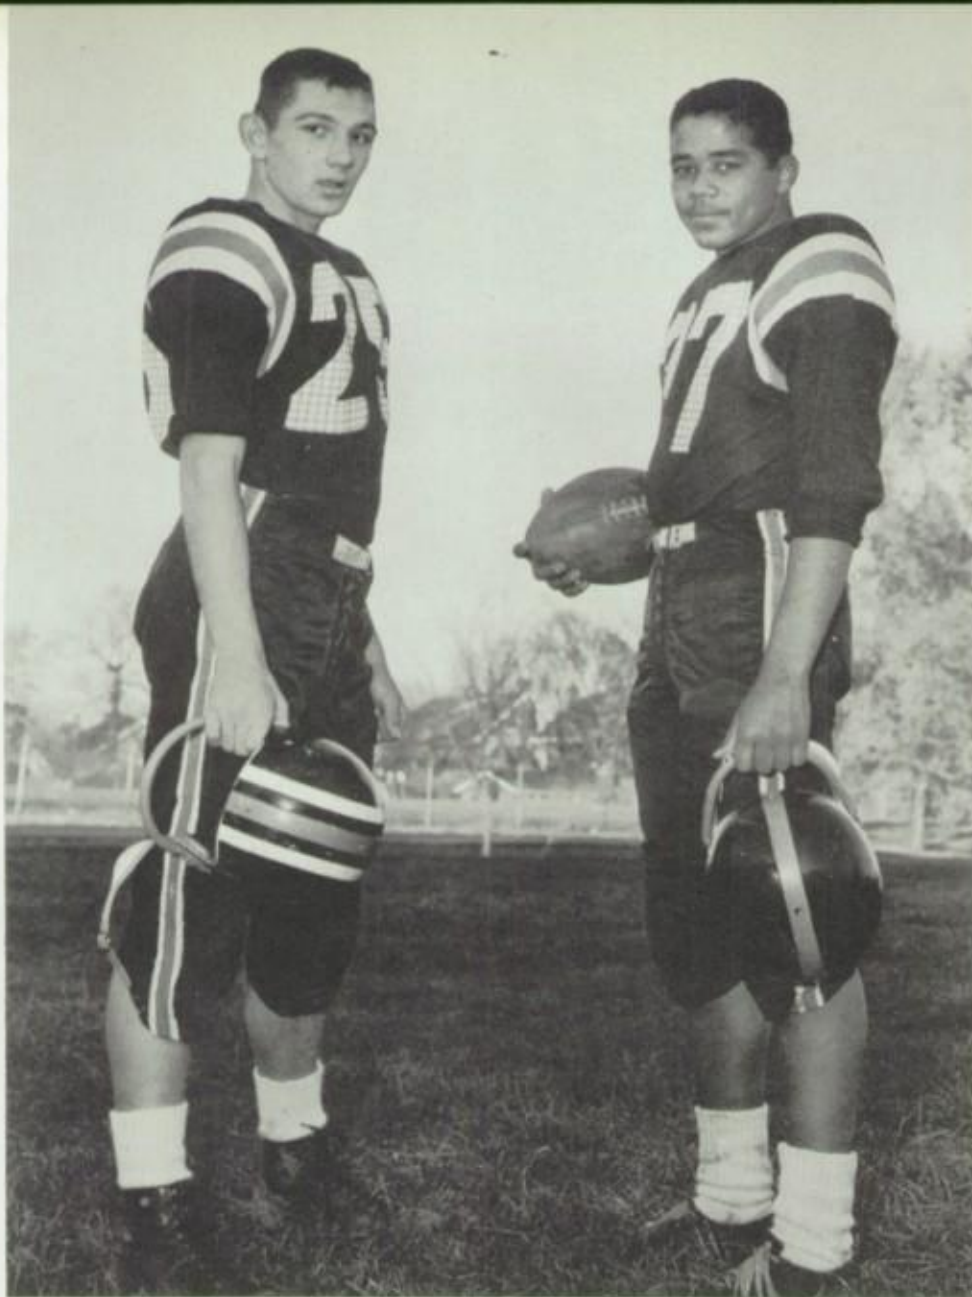

In action against ever-menacing Central, the Tigers came out on the short end of a sixteen to six score. Withrow was held to only nine yards in the first period, as the opposition dominated and the Knights scored two touchdowns. In the second half Withrow commenced a seventy yard drive which was to be stymied on their opponent's fifteen. Still rolling, the Tigers, midway in the last period, drove fifty-eight yards to paydirt, as Carter caught Withrow's only completed pass of the game. Likewise, Withrow lost to Woodward sixteen to six. In this, the final game of the season, both teams played a loose aerial game. The Bulldogs scored nine points in the opening quarter on a run by halfback Boyle and a fourteen yard field goal by Taylor. Retaliating quickly, the Tigers drove ninety-three yards, as Conners scored early in the second quarter. Play remained stabilized until the closing minutes when Woodward drove to our one, only to be stopped by determined Tigers. It went for naught as a Bulldog intercepted a pass.

The Tiger Cubs came out second best in the city when they suffered their only setback in the championship game with Porter. Fighting to maintain Withrow superiority, the future Varsity Tigers combined their above-average weight with over-all speed to turn back almost all opposition. BASKETBALL

An essential of a good basketball team is experience. Along with the experience of coach Huheey, comes the help of the basketball managers, John Linnenberg and Dave Schmidt. Working out plays for future games and making substitutions are only two of the coach's many duties. He also encourages the boys and helps to keep up their team spirit. The coach, of course, could not complete all of his many chores if it were not for the assistance of the managers. Keeping the equipment and uniforms of varsity, reserve, and junior teams in good order is part of their responsibility. They keep score for junior high games and chart for varsity games. "First to get to the gym for practice and last to leave" is their motto. Coach Huheey and the managers have proven to be of value to the team's morale.

Managers: J. Linnenberg; D. Schmidt.

School spirit often acts in the same way, as do vitamins. Without them we can sometimes feel quite dull and lifeless. This season found the Tigers with a real dose of the all-essential invigorator, school spirit. The team, the teachers, and all other Tigers responded by giving their all to make the basketball team a success. Leading the cheers were captain Sally Martin, Margo Becraft, Barb Conway, Mel Hartenian, Anne Liles, Kathy Onken, Linda Schelectdy, and Lois Gwinner, all transmitting their pep and enthusiasm to the crowds at the games. A prominent group of spirit promoters was "The Voices of Mr. G.," a pep club started by Mr. Gallager during the basketball season. They made signs, sat together, and chartered buses.

"Tigers comin', Tigers comin'. . ." and they did. Withrow's twelve "angry" men created quite a stir in local basketball circles as they surprised many "experts" by posting an enviable twelve and six regular season record. It was entirely a team effort on the part of the squad. Contributing were guards Cowperthwaite, Orr, Cunningham, Ritchie, and Stanforth; forwards Haynes, Burdick, Stuebing, and West; and centers Graves, Knost, and Tate. For the second year in succession, Tiger Joby Haynes led the PHSL in scoring with a 25.9 average and, in a personal victory, he was able, in the league finale to score sixty-five points and win the city scoring title.

Withrow enjoyed a prosperous basketball season in more ways than one. There was her coveted eighteen and six record, there were the outstanding individual performances, and there was the tournament action. In gaining that boastful eighteen and six record, the Tigers competed in one of the toughest leagues in the state, besides playing against talented "outsiders." Combining skill with hard work, Coach Huheey's lads showed signs of being able to dominate the Public High circuit, but roadblocks in the form of Central and Woodward demised these aspirations. The Tigers later retaliated in the tourney. Due to the defeats at the hands of these rivals, we could salvage only a tie for third in league competition. Out of the league Withrow was red-hot in winning five out of six encounters. The lone loss was a squeaker to Purcell, sixty-two to sixty. With five lettermen returning to the varsity next season, we can see nothing but good fortune in the near future for Withrow's point-happy hoopsters.

And then came the tournament, specifically the class AA tourney of the Hamilton County District. In the first two games the Tigers looked like champions in downing Elder, seventy-three to fifty-seven and afterwards out-playing Central in the final game of the series, sixty-seven to sixty-one. Withrow was doubly proud of this victory, as it was revenge for a previous twenty-nine point defeat by that team. Feeling confident of gaining the district laurels, we were abruptly shocked by the fighting Maroon Mustangs of West High, fifty-five to seventy. This past season was marked by extremely high spirits on the part of both the team and the students. Many believed that this team possessed more potential than any Withrow net squad in several years. Only certain "breaks" prevented the Bengals from gaining the high recognition due them. But just wait until next year!

It wasn't shown by the score, but the third Withrow vs. Central encounter was one of the hardest fought basketball games seen around Tigertown in a long time. Playing very unlike a team who in their previous contests with this opponent was humbled, one hundred twenty-eight to seventy four, the Tigers put on a show of team balance and hustle. They led throughout the first half as Bob Graves and Bill Knost were able to control the boards. At the sound of the midway buzzer they led by two. Then the Knights fought back and timely shots by Larry Elsasser closed the gap to 51-all. The final period found Withrow again in the lead as sophomore Tiger Dick West entered the game to inspire his team with fine rebounding and shooting unrevealed by him until that moment. The fighting Tigers were able to come through with flying colors as the game-ending tally showed our hard-courtmen triumphantly in the lead, sixty-eight to sixty-one.

A HOPEFUL HEAVE IS MADE BY RESERVE TIGERS.

Under the direction of Coach Frank Rolfes, the Withrow reserve basketball team broke even with a 9-9 record. The squad held a 0-6 total for the first round of play in the PHSL. But because of a change in their offense and their use of a full court press in defense, the Tigers won four and lost only two games in the second round. Two outstanding players for the season were Roland West, high scorer, with an 18.6 average and 180 points, and guard Bill Ferone, with a 133 point record.

Withrow's freshman basketball team copped six victories in the basketball competition between junior high forces. Mr. Zwayer, directing the boys, strove to create good sportsmanship and cooperation, as well as to build better athletes. Their first game, played against Eastern Hills, ended in a disappointing defeat with a score of 25-49. The following conflict marked a victory for the fighting Tigers when they downed Lyons, 25-21. The close of their third match found Withrow trailing behind the Woodward Bulldogs by one basket, the final score, 23-25. The Tigers proved victorious in their next two encounters, defeating Shroder 47-35 in the first clash and again walking over them, 39-25, in their next combat, after six consecutive defeats. Withrow came up with another win when they again conquered Shroeder, the score—50-30. Other conquests gained by the Tigers were in combat against Cutter and Eastern Hills.

CROSS COUNTRY

ACTIVE WITHROWITES PARTICIPATE IN CROSS-COUNTRY MEETS.

The 1960 season of cross-country brought together the greatest team in Withrow history. For the first time in thirty years, the Varsity Tigers won the City Championship. After the grueling city schedule, the harriers turned their eyes to the district meet. Our boys ran away with the title, leading the closest competitor by fifty-nine points, and gave Withrow its first district cup. Not ones to be stopped, the Tigers went on to bring back seventh place honors from the State Meet at Columbus. Coach Higgins' team was greatly bolstered by senior lettermen Harold Schuck, Ed White, Charles Parham, John Bemis, Elmer Fender, and Charles Carr, who led the Tigers to the city championship. Returning lettermen are Carl Ingram, Jim Meadows, Henry Davis, Frank Doyle and Joe Haynie.

JUNIOR HIGH TRACK

Through the years Withrow patrons have been proud of their junior high track team. The various cindermen were selected by Mr. Higgins, who was their coach. These boys participate in all phases of track. Some of their outstanding members were Costa, discus; Fisher, distance running; Jones, sprinting; Ohl, pole vaulting and Williams, high jumping. The practice and training these boys receive on the team will help them go on with real confidence.

When the mercury soared and the warm breezes blew, the Withrow varsity baseball team swung into full action. Loyal supporting the players and proving to be an indispensable aid was the team manager, Elmer Long. His manifold duties included running errands for the coach and squad, arranging and caring for the bats during the games, maintaining top-flight equipment, catching and chasing the foul balls and supervising the distribution and condition of the uniforms. The cog of the wheel and veritable core of Withrow's baseball department was stalwart John Huheey, varsity coach. His duties throughout the brief but intense season consisted of molding the players into a well-organized unit, maintaining discipline, and promoting team spirit.

"A pitch, a swing, strike three, you're out!" The team got off on the right foot by defeating Oak Hills in the opener. Tripling deep into the left field, Cunningham brought in Charlie Orr and Ralph Hendricks, scoring two runs for Withrow. The Orange chalked up a 9-4 victory over the Central Knights. Five runs in the third put Withrow on top for good. The sackers were handed their first defeat of the season by Purcell. With a closely knit and well organized team, the Withrow diamond men hopefully look forward to eleven more stiff competitive games. With ever-present confidence, competent coaching, and strong student backing, the Tigers will do their utmost to make this year's baseball season a successful one for the Orange!

SENIOR HIGH GOLF

DAVE PERFECTS HIS FOLLOW-THROUGH.

Although dubbed with the title of Withrow's smallest varsity team, the Tiger linksters can still create quite a stir on the neighborhood fairways. Coach Williams, the "Pro" at Withrow's Country Club, assembled a fine group of amateur golfers. A three year letterman, Dave Shick, completed his last year with the squad. While Earl Northcutt again led the pack as the low scorer. Backing up these two golfers were Don Kelch and Mike Zavisan, both juniors. Although lacking in size as compared with last year, the team was able to fare well in quite a few tournaments. In the practice sessions, the coach gave advice and tips with which the various golfers were able to shave points from their games and correct any faults. Next year three lettermen will return and the Tigers should again have a prosperous year. The golf team gets little public recognition even with its high standing, but the turfmen return again and again to compete in this interesting sport. With such fine representatives golf is gaining more and more popularity.

SENIOR HIGH TENNIS

Coached by our enthusiastic and zealous Mr. Harold Sherman, fondly known to his players as "Sherm," the 1960 Withrow Varsity Tennis Team's season is now underway. As the league matches have proceeded, Withrow has defeated the Purcell netters, 3 to 2. The boys participating are anxiously looking forward to the coming city tournament followed up by the state tournament. Although we do not have the results of these matches as we go to print, we Withrowites have many high hopes of coming out victoriously.

JUNIOR HIGH TENNIS

A severe case of spring fever lays siege to Withrowites during the last months of the school year. The campus is bombarded with students, many of whom turn their energies towards their favorite sport and its warfare, a sport such as tennis. These athletes stride forth in tennis whites to the battleground where they learn the tactics of the racket and net. The weapon is raised and the sphere sent hurdling through the air. The opposing force answers the challenge with equal agility. Thus begins the fabulous game of tennis.

VARSITY SWIMMING

TRAINING HAS ITS REWARD, FOR PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT.

Copping tenth place in the state meet in Columbus was a big achievement for the Tiger swimming squad. Coached by Carl Graham and captained by senior letterman Jon Heimann and Larry Lobring, the team took third in the district meet. The 200 yard free-style relay team consisting of Palmer, Penn, Deck, and Lobring set a city record. The relay team also took second place at Columbus. City-wide competition found Withrow eleven points behind Walnut Hills in the final standings. This year's squad was handicapped by the loss of several lettermen to other schools. In the words of Coach Graham, the team might have won its first PHSL crown in twenty-five years had it not been for these losses. The good showing of the sophomore and junior mermen make next year's prospects even more optimistic.

The boys' junior high swimming team is coached by Mr. Graham. This past year the team placed third in the city. For the first two swimming meets, our mermen were lagging far behind their competitors, but in the third and final contest they, with sudden new power, scored enough points to overcome Western Hills and claim third in the city. Scott MacAllister, one of our outstanding seventh graders, scored many points for the Tigers with his speedy butterfly. Another of our outstanding boys was John Keller. Though he did not enter until the second half of the season because of a broken finger, this diver proved to be a great asset to the team. He copped fourth place in the city meet, and third in the district. Ninth graders Tom Pace and Jack Beasley directed the team as co-captains.

FOOTBALL HONOR DANCE

THE VICTORY FOOTBALL CHANGED HANDS AS WOODWARD GAINED THE COVETED HONOR WITH A 16-6 WIN.

1960 marked the beginning of the Football Honor Dance, sponsored by the Withrow Athletic Department, which should prove to be an annual highlight of future football seasons. This year the dance was held in the National Guard Armory, which proved not too spacious, as a large crowd turned out to see the football and cross-country teams appropriately honored.

G A A B O A R D

Under the supervision of Nancy Van Epps, President, and Mrs. Lally, adviser, the officers of the Girls' Athletic Association plan the activities of the club. The duties of the board members are many and varied. By selling football programs, nutritious apples, and stuffed animals, GAA is able to finance awards given at its banquet; a scholarship awarded to a deserving senior girl; and its gifts, parties, and playdays. Membership and points are also recorded and computed by one of the responsible officers. An assembly is planned in the fall to acquaint new Withrowites with the good times and outstanding qualities of GAA. These being a few of their duties, the board members work cooperatively to make the Girls' Athletic Association run smoothly.

GAA offers varied recreation for athletic-minded girls at Withrow. Without the leadership of Mrs. Lally and many other advisers, GAA would not be able to offer as many types of sports. Teaching the students many rules and regulations, skills, and good sportsmanship, is among their numerous assets. Just as "Santa Claus" has his helpers so do the advisers of GAA, but instead of being called "elves" they are known as GAA managers. A manager is at the head of each sport. Making schedules for games and taking care of the equipment make her day a very busy one.

SANTA'S HELPERS BEAUTIFY WITHROW'S HALLS.

One of the services of the Girls' Athletic Association is putting up Christmas trees in the main hall. After providing holiday spirit for all Withrowites during a week, the trees are given to a charity home for further enjoyment. To help pay for the awards presented to the many deserving girls at the Honor Night Banquet in the spring, there are many lucrative projects supported by GAA. Apples are on sale in the gym after classes and after 3:00. These provide nourishment and energy for the games ahead. This year stuffed animals, sold at Easter time, also helped boost the treasury. The awards presented to the girls are rewards for athletic ability and participation. When a girl has earned 500 points she receives a bracelet; for 1000 points she receives a trophy. Charms for the bracelets are awarded to winners of the different sports.

WINTER SPORTS

REBOUNTING ROUND BALLERS DISPLAY VARSITY POTENTIAL.

Through the autumn season and into the winter months, the many participants of Withrow's Girls' Athletic Association can be found hurriedly changing into gym suits and shoes for practice. The thought of an active game draws many GAAers. The organization of volleyball and basketball seasons is basically the same. After attending the three practices, these sports enthusiasts become eligible to participate in games with their schoolmates as opponents. Outstanding teams always clash with rivals from other schools on playday. For class day, a squad from each class is formed, comprised of the finest players. These teams have a playoff for the championship. GAA fulfills its purpose by providing fun, exercise, and companionship for all. Besides the enjoyment rendered, these games build fair play, cooperation and true sportsmanship.

SPRING SPORTS

Spring roared for the first time on March twenty-second—likewise did the girls who enjoyed spring sports. Before spring had fully blossomed the GAA girls were already busily preparing for the first phase of spring sports. With the only requirement being a partner, many girls, novices and champs, came out to the individual sports doubles tournaments. The first of these sports is table tennis, which is followed by badminton and shuffleboard. The players move outside to conclude the doubles tournament with horseshoes. Tennis is filled with love and deuces—of course it depends upon the way the ball bounces. The first swat of the tennis ball was heard first in gym classes then after school. Dexterous players played in the tournament, in which Sandy Distler, manager, displayed her technique in tennis. The crack of the bat, the thud of the ball contacting the glove, and the cheers and moans of the players all together stand for the great GAA pastime—baseball. Each afternoon at 3:00 the diamonds filled up with the future sluggers. The umpires' familiar "Play ball!" gave the signal for the games to begin. Manager Donna White, saw that all the equipment was in proper order so the games could run quickly and smoothly.

DOLPHIN CLUB

HERE'S "RING AROUND THE MAYPOLE," DOLPHIN STYLE.

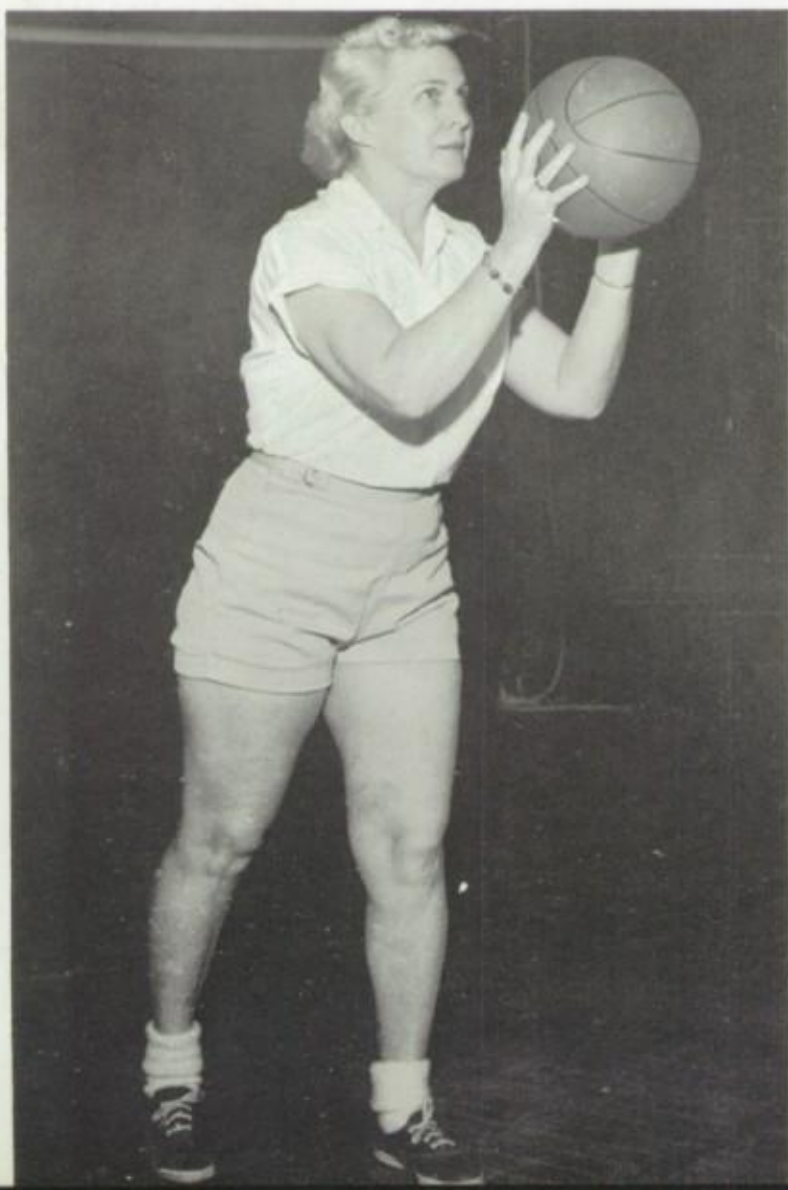

With a ripple of laughter and a splash of gaiety, the Dolphin members got "in the swim" another year. Heading the mermaids as presiding officer was buoyant Lois Gwinner. Denise Dubuque performed the duties of vice president, while Sue Onken held the purse strings for the organization. Serving as secretary was Jodie Anderson. The season was ushered in with tryouts for prospective members. After selecting these, groups were formed and practice began for the water pageant, Calendar Capers. Next in line was the activity of mastering the feats on the ability charts. Ending the year with smiles and pleasant memories, the members of Dolphin gave the varsity swimming team a party. Topping all events, the annual summer outing at Coney Island brought the group together for their final swim as an organized club.

LIL' GAA'S TOP BRASS

Miss Robinson

What is a Junior GAAer? One typical sketch might reveal her on the hockey field clad in a blue gym suit, with cumbersome shin guards and stick, while another might picture her on the archery field, with a forearm brace and quiver, poised ready to shoot. Who would ever suspect this Diana to be the pert young miss enjoying herself at the sock-hop held by GAA? Although the program is mainly centered around sports, it is also the source of many social activities. Just as fun, good sportsmanship, and recreation are the components of Senior High GAA; so are they also the basic foundation of the junior high branch. This program is sponsored by Withrow's athletic department and offers many different types of sports, both group and individual. Among those group sports are soccer, volleyball, baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis; while tumbling, Dance Club, badminton, Dolphin Club, and ping-pong are planned with the individual in mind. This year the Ten Commandments of Good Sportsmanship were presented to these girls as a code of ethics which should direct future goals.

For those of us who aspire to the industrial crafts, Withrow offers its large Industrial Arts Department. From the metal shops to the wood shops, students are given a strong background in the various fields of skilled crafts. At the end of their Withrow schooling, participants in this shop program may have had some training in metalwork, in carpentry, or in any of the other arts offered. Withrow is noted for this section which has brought us honor in the form of prizes won in national contests and in the high number of successful material turned out.

The driver training course offered at Withrow makes for skill in the art of manipulating a motor vehicle in all conditions. The requirements for the curriculum, instructed by Mr. Botuchis, are the completion of the course in driver's education offered in sophomore health classes and the possession of a driver's permit. Besides learning the safety rules, the students also practice changing the tires, parallel parking, and driving techniques in conditions of snow or ice. By studying controls on the dashboard they are better acquainted with the car. Qualities such as good sportsmanship and manners, also being stressed, complete a valuable course.

Here's How It All Started . . .

Ninety years ago, in 1867 the Fred Pagels Stg. Co. entered the moving and storage business with the most modern equipment . . . horse drawn vans. It is a far cry from this early beginning to the new combination of ultra-modern trucks and air freight used today. Thanks to this company for the advertisement division page sponsorship.
